Re: Nelson Rockefeller

The Watergate Special Prosecution Force (WSPF) and Office of Counsel to the President furnished information to this Bureau on August 11 and 13, 1974, respectively, alleging that one Hal O'Brien of Washington, D.C., possessed knowledge of information detrimental to Governor Nelson Rockefeller. Harold Johnson O'Brien, who was identified and located by the FBI, related to the WSPF on August 12, 1974, that Roy Sheppard told O'Brien he had lied to the grand jury in 1973, and that he had secreted in a safe deposit box in Pulaski, Virginia, under his sister's name, certain documents which belong to E. Howard Hunt. These documents allegedly state Rockefeller contributed funds to the McGovern Campaign and had hired thugs to disrupt the democratic convention if McGovern was not nominated.

Roy Sheppard testified in May 1973 before the Watergate Grand Jury in connection with a report that he had removed several boxes of records from the Executive Office Building office of E. Howard Hunt on June 18, 1972.

FBI investigation identified the seven brothers and sisters of Sheppard and located two safe deposit boxes which are rented to members of Sheppard's family. Roy Sheppard and the safe deposit box holders denied knowledge of any such papers and a consent search of the boxes disclosed nothing beyond personal papers.

The WSPF is in possession of all details and is currently deciding what, if any, further grand jury or investigative action is warranted.

Phila. Lawyer Tied To Rockefeller Smear

By FRANK DOUGHERTY

The mystery man who told White House officials that Nelson Rockefeller financed a team of men to disrupt the 1972 Democratic National Convention has been identified as Philadelphia attorney Hamilton A. Long.

Long, who could not be reached for comment, maintains an office here in the Public Ledger Building, 6th and Chestnut sts.

The charges were dismissed as unfounded by Watergate special prosecutor Leon Jaworski after Long, believed to be in his 70s, contacted White House counsel Philip Buchen with the information.

DESCRIBED as an "elderly right-wing activist" by the Long Island paper, Newsday, Long said he made the allegations against the former New York governor "to avoid President Ford's being caught in an 'Eagleton Affair' like 1963."

The reference was to the decision by Democratic Presidential candidate George McGovern to drop Sen. Thomas Eagleton (D., Mo.) as his running mate after learning that Eagleton had undergone shock treatments for severe depression.

That incident took place in the 1972 race, however, not in 1968.

Long, who operates Your Heritage Books, Inc., and Foresight-Through-Hindsight Lectures, told Buchen that the proof could be found in documents formerly belonging to Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt that were being kept in a bank safe deposit box in Pulaski, Va.

The information about the documents was given to Hamilton by Harold (Hal) O'Brien, owner of a Washington photocopying shop.

AFTER AN investigation by Jaworski's office failed to turn up any evidence, including opening the supposed hiding place of the documents and finding nothing, the charges were declared unfounded.

LEON JAWORSKI

... charges unfounded

"I'm the guy who told Long about the documents," said O'Brien last night. "I threw the pass to Long."

O'Brien maintains that the documents do exist and they are being hidden by Roy Sheppard, an old friend of his that knew Howard Hunt.

Rockefeller Enemy Upset by Publicity

By GERALD McKELVEY
Inquirer Staff Writer

Hamilton A. Long has only a small part in the events surrounding the transition from the Nixon Administration to the Ford Administration, and he says he's not happy with it.

He'd be much more satisfied, Long says, if he had no public part in the drama. Certainly he didn't expect to be revealed as the informant who told White House Counsel Philip W. Buchen that the files of Watergate burglar E. Howard Hunt Jr. contained evidence damaging to Nelson Rockefeller. The former governor of New York is reported to be among President Ford's top candidates for the Vice Presidency.

"I talked in confidence with Mr. Buchen," Long said Monday in his office on the ninth floor of the Public Ledger Building, 6th and Walnut sts. "I assumed the confidence would be kept."

It wasn't.

Buchen notified the office of Special Watergate Prosecutor Leon Jaworski. A frantic search was made of boxes in a bank vault in Virginia; the boxes were empty. On Saturday, Presidential Press Secretary J. F. terHorst denounced the incident as the work of "extremists who wished for reasons of their own to discredit Governor Rockefeller."

Buchen named Long as the source of the tip. Long passed the ball to H. J. O'Brien, a Washington printer, who said the information came from former White House staffer Roy Sheppard.

So Long claims his role was simply that of an intermediary.

Long seemed less distressed at being named the informant than at being called an "extremist."

Instead, he calls himself a "traditionalist." He says he is registered with neither political party and in fact, seldom votes.

He is a tall, gracious man, a former Wall Street lawyer. Long's sandy hair and trim physique belie the fact he is 75 years old.

He retired from active law practice in 1943 and since then has been an author. He has written only one book, "Your American Yardstick: The Twelve Basic American Principles."

Long published the book himself 11 years ago. Only 50,000 copies have been distributed, mostly through a company he formed for that purpose, and sales are very low.

Long said he was supported in his publishing firm by private individuals whom he declined to name. He also said he was not a member of any group or faction.

He travels much of the time, and his residence in Philadelphia is a hotel. His office, on the east side of the Public Ledger Building (the sign on the door says Your Heritage Book Co.), is his "headquarters."

"This," said Long, sweeping his arm dramatically toward the tower of Independence Hall, visible from his office window, "is why I'm here."

Ford to Choose 'Good President'

United Press International

WASHINGTON — President Ford said Monday his choice as a Vice President, likely to be announced today, will be first and foremost a person "who would be a good President."

Talking with reporters on Air Force 1 en route back to Washington from Chicago, the President turned aside all questions as to who is still in the running for the No. 2 job.

"I haven't told anybody," he said, "I'm a sphinx."

White House counselor Robert Hartman, who was aboard the plane, said the vice presidential nominee would definitely be a Republican.

Asked about the qualifications he was seeking, Ford said: "Naturally I think you have to take into consideration who would be a good President. And there is a broad parameter after that. I don't want to go beyond that."

Aides said Ford would announce his choice some time today, after pondering the matter since shortly after he was sworn in as President Aug. 9. They said the President had narrowed his list of possibilities to "about half a dozen."

Asked whether allegations concerning Republican National Chairman George Bush's 1970 senatorial campaign had any impact on his candidacy for the post, Ford replied, "No more effect than the stories about Nelson Rockefeller."

Newsweek magazine reported Monday that Bush's chances had "slipped badly because of alleged irregularities in the financing of his 1970 Senate race in Texas." Texas Republican officials called that report "a lie."

A Philadelphia lawyer, Hamilton A. Long, called the White House last week alleging that Rockefeller had funded "dirty tricks" aimed at disrupting the 1972 Democratic National Convention. The White House replied, after investigations by the FBI and Special Prosecutor Leon Jaworski's office, that the accusations were groundless.

Vice President Choice May Come Tomorrow

Washington — (AP)—President Ford may end the vice presidential guessing game tomorrow.

Indications are he may choose someone other than the two front-runners in speculation, Nelson A. Rockefeller and George Bush.

Mr. Ford said on the way to play golf Sunday that he expects to decide on his vice presidential choice on Tuesday. Congressional confirmation hearings on the nominee won't start before mid-September.

Rockefeller is the only possibility Ford has publicly mentioned.

He did so in a statement Saturday afternoon amid a flurry of speculation surrounding what the White House said was an effort by "right-wing extremists" to smear the former New York governor and destroy his chances.

Press Is Told

President Ford has advised me that former governor Rockefeller has been and remains under consideration for the vice presidential nomination," press secretary Jerald F. TerHorst told reporters at the fourth press briefing of the day.

In New York today, Rockefeller today shrugged off an apparent attempt to discredit him by linking him to "dirty tricks" in the 1972 presidential campaign.

"I've been in politics a long time, so what's new?" Rockefeller replied to a reporter's questions as he arrived at his midtown office for a meeting of his Commission on Critical Choices for America.

He said he had spoken to President Ford on Saturday "and he told me what he was going to do" before the White House announced that an investigation by the special Watergate prosecutor had concluded that the tip on the alleged link was baseless.

Speculation Shifts

However, two knowledgeable Capitol Hill Republican sources told The Associated Press that chances were growing that neither Rockefeller nor Bush, the Republican national chairman and top choice of many GOP conservatives, would be picked.

The sources said those in contention include NATO Ambassador Donald Rumsfeld, a Ford intimate who has been working on the transition from the Nixon Administration; Gov. Daniel J. Evans of Washington, a moderate without any connection with Watergate or any other Nixon Administration controversies; and three Republican senators: Lowell P. Weicker Jr. of Connecticut, and Howard H. Baker Jr. and Bill Brock, both of Tennessee.

Both Weicker and Baker served on the Senate Watergate Committee, where the Connecticut senator was the most outspoken Nixon critic.

One of the sources said that background checks on Bush had turned up a potential problem.

Newsweek Magazine on Sunday said Bush has "slipped badly because of alleged irregularities in the financing of his 1970 Senate race in Texas."

Mr. Ford's affirmation that Rockefeller still was in the running for the vice presidency came after Watergate investigators checked and dismissed a report about allegedly derogatory information about Rockefeller.

The incident grew out of a visit Aug. 11 by a man who identified himself only as "Mr. Long" to Philip Buchen, a Ford friend and adviser. TerHorst said Long gave Buchen information about the location of and contents of papers of Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt and claimed "there ought to be some things he (Ford) ought to know" if Rockefeller was being considered for Vice President.

A news release bearing the name of Hamilton A. Long of Philadelphia, a retired lawyer, and left at news media offices said Long contacted Buchen to help prevent Mr. Ford from making a too-hasty vice presidential selection.

Long said he had no firsthand knowledge of the allegedly derogatory information, but said he had received his information from an informant.

'Eagleton Affair'

The statement said Long agreed to contact Buchen "to avoid President Ford's being caught in another 'Eagleton affair' like 1968" — an apparent reference to the 1972 decision of Democratic presidential nominee George S. McGovern to drop Sen. Thomas F. Eagleton (D-Mo.) as his running mate after learning Eagleton had undergone shock treatment.

The statement said Long acted by himself in contacting Buchen and that Long "is not associated with any group or organization and has never been active politically."

TerHorst said the information was turned over to Watergate prosecutor Leon Jaworski, who obtained access to two safety deposit boxes in a bank vault in which it was thought the copies of Hunt's papers might be found. They were not found and the matter is closed, TerHorst said.

Philadelphian 'Dismayed' at Revelation of His Rumor on Rocky

Hamilton A. Long sat in his office in the Public Ledger Building at 6th and Chestnut sts. yesterday. He looked out over Independence Hall, where the nation was born, and said he was "dismayed" over what had happened to him over the weekend.

Long, a bespectacled, slightly built man who has a sprinkle of gray in his light brown hair and looks much younger than his 75 years, was named as the source of information received by the White House linking former Gov. Nelson Rockefeller to dirty tricks played against the Democrats during their 1972 national convention. The White House said the information was unsubstantiated.

Presidential press secretary Jerald F. terHorst tied Long, who refused to be photographed yesterday, to a "right-wing extremist plot" in connection with the charges against Rockefeller, who was being considered for the Vice Presidential nomination.

That accusation bothers Long. He has spent much of his life researching and writing about the Constitution. On the walls of his office are pictures of the Founding Fathers. He fought in two world wars. Even the last four digits of his phone number are patriotic: 1776.

"ANYONE saying my writing is right-wing is saying the Constitution is right-wing, which means they're fools," he said.

Long said he gave the information he had obtained from a New York photocopier he does business with to Presidential counsel Philip Bucher on Aug. 11.

This relates to the on-going investigation to resolve a report that documents were removed from E. Howard Hunt's Office 6/18/72 indicating that New York Governor Nelson Rockefeller had made contributions to the McGovern campaign and had hired thugs to disrupt the 1972 Democratic National Convention if McGovern was not nominated. Allegations of this nature were received by both the Special Prosecution Force and the White House.

We have now been advised that Columnist Jack Anderson and his associate Les Witten will release a story on this inquiry on Friday, 8/16/74. It is believed by the Special Prosecution Force that Witten may have been the original source of this information to the White House.

Background On the evening of 8/11/74 Assistant Watergate Special Prosecutor Richard Ben-Veniste related to WFO that Special Prosecutor Jaworski had received information from a confidential source that one Hal O'Brien, later identified by WFO as Harold Johnson O'Brien, 1346 Connecticut Avenue, Washington, D. C., had in his possession or knew the whereabouts of the above-described documents. O'Brien was interviewed by the Special Prosecution Force on 8/12/74 during which he advised one Roy Sheppard admitted to O'Brien he had lied to the grand jury in 1973 and, in fact, had secreted certain documents in a safe deposit box in Pulaski, Virginia, under his sister's name. These documents allegedly belong to E. Howard Hunt and contained information detrimental to Nelson Rockefeller. The documents allegedly state that Rockefeller contributed funds to the McGovern campaign and that he hired thugs to disrupt the Democratic National Convention if McGovern was not nominated. Sheppard told O'Brien he would destroy these documents if O'Brien ever revealed this information.

Long to Gebhardt
RE: JAMES WALTER MC CORD, JR., ET AL.

At approximately 4:00 pm, 8/13/74, White House Counsel to the President advised FBI liaison that the administrative aide to Senator Lowell Weicker had contacted the Office of the President on Capitol Hill reporting that they had received information from a Mr. Long of the Heritage Book Shop in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to the effect that Hal O'Brien of Washington, D. C., had possession of information which was detrimental to Nelson Rockefeller. It is not known whether this Mr. Long is also the source of information to Mr. Jaworski.

Sheppard is the employee of the Alexandria Delivery Company who allegedly removed documents from the Executive Office Building office of E. Howard Hunt on 6/18/72 at the direction of Ken Smith of the Committee to Reelect the President. Sheppard, und grant of immunity, furnished no information to the grand jury in support of the allegation that he had removed these documents from Hunt's office.

Results of Investigation Our Philadelphia Office has determined that the only Heritage Book Shop in their vicinity is the one at Pottstown, Pennsylvania, which is owned and operated by two women. There are no known male owners or employees. The Pottstown Police Department know of no "Mr. Long" to be associated with this shop. There is a Heritage Publisher, Inc., in Philadelphia, which is a publisher of trade journals. This is operated by three male individuals, none of whom have the surname Long and there are no other employees. A pretext telephone call to this company revealed Mr. Long is not known at that location.

There are two banks located in Pulaski and contact at these institutions developed no safe deposit boxes are rented to Roy Sheppard or any of his five sisters who were identified through our investigation. Interview of Sheppard's eldest sister was unproductive in resolving issue. She declined cooperation based on request of Sheppard.

Further investigation at the Bank of Virginia, Pulaski, disclosed two safe deposit boxes rented to persons with surname Sheppard; degree of relationship to Roy Sheppard not known at this time.

Investigation is being coordinated with the Special Prosecution Force and all leads are being extensively pursued.

In response to the call you received from Jim Vorenberg in the Special Prosecutor's Office this morning and our subsequent discussions in connection therewith, I returned his call at approximately 3:15 p. m. on August 23, 1974.

I advised Mr. Vorenberg that I had checked into the matter that he had discussed with you involving the attention called to Carl Feldbaum of his staff of one item in one of the transcriptions dealing with a very sensitive operation in order that they may be alerted to the impact this would have should it be inadvertently made public and particularly of the adverse effect it would have upon the intelligence community and, more specifically, the detriment it would be in our performing our responsibilities in this area of our operations.

I assured him that in calling this to his attention we in no way intended to imply or question the material being transcribed, but rather we felt we had the responsibility and would be derelict if we did not call the significance of this information to the attention of the Special Prosecutor. I further assured Vorenberg that this project which we are doing at the request of the Special Prosecutor is being performed in compliance with arrangements that had been worked out with the Special Prosecutor's staff to insure complete security to the material involved.

Vorenberg stated he was merely concerned that we may be going contrary to the desires of the court and Special Prosecutor if in fact our personnel were extracting portions of interest to the FBI and passing such up to higher Bureau officials, which would be contrary to the desires of the court and the Special Prosecutor's Office. I assured Vorenberg that no such activity was occurring, that there was complete understanding as to the manner in which this material was to be transcribed, the security afforded it and the fact that we were merely performing a function for his office and therefore I could assure him without hesitation that this type of activity was not involved; i. e. passing bits and pieces along to FBI officials. I assured Vorenberg that Bureau officials were particularly sensitive to this undertaking and had no interest whatever in receiving bits or pieces or the whole content of any of the material involved in this project. I pointed out, however, I felt the employee spotting the item highlighted for their attention displayed particular alertness in this matter and in turn we would have been derelict I felt had we not alerted the Special Prosecutor's Office to the possible ramifications of this item, should it be released to the public, inadvertently or otherwise. Mr. Vorenberg stated that he was satisfied with this assurance that we were functioning as desired by the Special Prosecutor's Office; however, he did want to make the inquiry in view of the material having been called to their attention and recognized that it was an isolated incident and in effect agreed it was proper to have called it to their attention. He ended up by expressing appreciation for the excellent cooperation that the Special Prosecutor's Office had been receiving from the Bureau.

REC-77

Enclosed are two copies of a memorandum prepared at Washington, D. C., dated August 29, 1974, recording results of requested investigation of the allegation that Roy Sheppard had secreted certain documents detrimental to Nelson Rockefeller.

This will also confirm conversation had by Messrs. Richard Ben-Veniste and Peter Kreindler, Special Prosecution Force, and Special Agent A. G. Barger of this Bureau on August 27, 1974, at which time Mr. Barger was advised no further investigation was desired by the Special Prosecution Force. Mr. Kreindler was informed on this occasion that the White House had made Special Inquiry in connection with Nelson Rockefeller's nomination as Vice President and, in that regard, a summary of this investigation was being furnished to the White House. Mr. Kreindler said the Special Prosecution Force had no objection to this disclosure.

In view of the above, no further action will be taken by this Bureau in the absence of a specific request of the Special Prosecution Force.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

INTERCEPTION OF COMMUNICATIONS

On August 11, 1974, the Office of the Special Prosecutor advised information had been received that one Hal O'Brien, 1346 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C., either had in his possession or knew the whereabouts of documents once belonging to E. Howard Hunt. A discreet inquiry was requested to fully identify Hal O'Brien of the above address and to identify one Roy H. Sheppard who, it was recalled from the Watergate investigation, was allegedly involved with the Hunt papers. Per O'Brien

On August 13, 1974, the Special Prosecution Force advised that O'Brien had been interviewed by that office on the evening of August 12, 1974, at which time O'Brien related that Roy Sheppard had informed O'Brien that he, Sheppard, lied before the grand jury in 1973 and, in fact, he had secreted in a safe deposit box in Pulaski, Virginia, under his sister's name, certain documents which belonged to E. Howard Hunt. These documents allegedly stated that Nelson Rockefeller contributed funds to the McGovern campaign and that Rockefeller had hired thugs to disrupt the Democratic Convention if McGovern was not nominated. Later, on August 13, 1974, this Bureau was advised by White House Counsel to the President of substantially the same information as furnished by the Special Prosecution Force and, in addition, that Senator Lowell Wiecker's administrative aide had advised that a "Mr. Long" of the Heritage Book Shop in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, had informed that office that Hal O'Brien possessed documents detrimental to Rockefeller.

A check of all telephone and city directories for the Philadelphia metropolitan area (including the Camden, New Jersey, area) failed to disclose any listing for a Heritage Book Shop. Logical sources were contacted and they were unfamiliar with any retail or wholesale establishment with that name.

A Pennsylvania Bell Telephone Company representative advised the Philadelphia FBI Office that there is a Heritage Book Shop in Pottstown, Pennsylvania (telephone 215-323-5971), which is in Montgomery County. It should be noted that although this is the same area code as Philadelphia, the town itself is approximately 45 miles from Philadelphia. It was further determined from this representative that there is a Heritage Publications located on Horter Street, Philadelphia; however, there is no indication that this company is identical or related to the Heritage Book Shop.

Robert D. Porter, owner, Credit Bureau of Pottstown, advised that the Heritage Book Shop was owned and operated by Elizabeth G. Jackson and Priscilla Revell. No males are known to be owners or employees. Pottstown police sources substantiated this. No person named "Long" was known to be connected with this shop.

Heritage Publications, Philadelphia, was determined to be a publisher of trade journals. Timothy Davis, Wendell Hughes and Frank Morris are officers and there are no other employees. Investigation determined "Mr. Long" is unknown to this firm.

No further investigation was conducted to identify "Mr. Long" since O'Brien had advised the Special Prosecution Force that Roy Sheppard was the original source of O'Brien's and "Mr. Long's" allegation. "Mr. Long" subsequently, on 8/18/74, identified himself to the news media as being Hamilton A. Long, Public Ledger Building, Philadelphia, an elderly lawyer, author, and lecturer.

JAMES WALTER MC CORD, JR.

On August 13, 1974, a review of appropriate court records, Washington, D. C., reflected that Roy H. Sheppard had the following relatives:

Father:	Frank C. Sheppard	223 Lexington Avenue Pulaski, Virginia
Mother:	Helen Sheppard	address same as above
Brother:	Kydell Sheppard	address same as above
Brother:	James W. Sheppard	address same as above
Sister:	Lala Tracey Sheppard	address same as above

Sister:	Gay Luchado Sheppard	208 Madison Avenue Pulaski, Virginia
Sister:	Irene Sheppard	825 8th Street, N.E. Washington, D. C.

On August 14, 1974, Miss Elizabeth Hill, Bank of Virginia; and Mr. William Smith, Virginia National Bank, both of Pulaski, advised a representative of the FBI that they could locate no record regarding a safe deposit box in the names of Roy Sheppard, Nancy Sheppard, Mrs. Gay Luchado Sheppard or Lala Tracey Sheppard.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent PATRICK J. RUTZINSKI on August 15, 1974:

AT PULASKI, VIRGINIA

Marriage records, Pulaski County Circuit Court were reviewed at which time the following information was obtained:

On December 22, 1973, LALA SHEPPARD, daughter of C. F. SHEPPARD, and HELEN DELP SHEPPARD, married GLENN LACY (TRACY?).

On April 10, 1937, GAYE SHEPPARD, daughter of C. F. and HELEN SHEPPARD, married JOHN LUCADO.

Check of the City Directories for the Town of Pulaski, Virginia reflected the following:

LALA H. TRACY, widow of GLENN TRACY, resides at 220 Pierce Avenue, Pulaski, Virginia.

JOHN PRESTON LUCADO, wife - GAYE, resides at 202 South Madison Street, Pulaski, Virginia.

The directories reflect no listing for C. F., ROY, NANCY, LENA, or IRENE SHEPPARD.

Mrs. PEGGY HINSON, Virginia National Bank, and Mr. GARLEN B. CALLAHAN, The Bank of Virginia-Pulaski, both advised that they had no record that GAYE and JOHN PRESTON LUCADO had a safe deposit box at their respective banks.

Mrs. ELIZABETH HILL, The Bank of Virginia-Pulaski, advised that with respect to Mrs. C. F. SHEPPARD, who was currently a co-subscriber to safe deposit box #147 at that bank, if it is the same one that she recalls, she recalls

BEATRICE K. OGLE, New Accounts, Bank of Virginia-Pulaski, advised that with respect to Mrs. C. F. C. area, possibly Falls Church or Alexandria, Virginia, with one of her children. She stated that she could only recall seeing two of Mrs. SHEPPARD's children, a male and a female, names unknown. She indicated that it has been some period of time since she has seen Mrs. SHEPPARD. She stated that CLAYTON SHEPPARD, JAMES W. SHEPPARD and LENA B. SHEPPARD are unknown to her.

The following individuals were contacted by SA PATRICK J. RUTZINSKI on August 15, 1974:

LALA TRACY, 220 Pierce Avenue, Pulaski, Virginia, was contacted by SA PATRICK J. RUTZINSKI of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and at the outset, was apprised that the contact was being made at the specific request of the Special Prosecutor's Office in Washington, D. C., and the purpose of the contact was to obtain the names of her relatives, particularly her sisters and brothers.

She readily admitted that ROY SHEPPARD was her brother; however, upon contacting her son, BILLY TRACY, who resides next door to her, she respectfully declined to furnish the names of her relatives, stating that she did not want to become involved, nor did she want to testify in a Court of Law against her brother.

During the course of contact with TRACY, it was learned from her that she is the eldest of eight (8) children and that ROY SHEPPARD is about 54 years old. She related that all of her brothers and sisters, with the exception of one of her sisters, Mrs. LUCADO, reside in the northern Virginia area, around Washington, D. C., all residing within about 25 miles of where her brother ROY is currently living.

She related that her brother, ROY SHEPPARD, had previously been in contact with his brothers and sisters, exact date not specified, and had related that he had become involved in some sort of difficulty and that the members of the family should not talk about him with anyone as he did not want to get the family involved.

She later had determined that ROY was involved in "Watergate" and stated that ROY had operated a delivery service of some sort and apparently had made pickups from and deliveries to the Presidential White House in Washington, D. C., which pickups and deliveries had allegedly contained "Watergate" papers. However, ROY claimed that these pickups and deliveries were in boxes and he, in fact, did not even CLAYTON KYDELL SHEPPARD was located and interviewed at his home, 6006 Amherst Road, Springfield, Virginia. He was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and that the Agents were seeking the whereabouts of JAMES W. and LENA SHEPPARD. CLAYTON SHEPPARD advised that JAMES W. and LENA were his brother and sister, however, he would not advise the Agents of their current address, until such time as he was appraised of the Agents request.

He was informed that an inquiry was being made on behalf of the Watergate Special Prosecutor, to determine if JAMES W. and/or LENA SHEPPARD rented or owned safe deposit boxes in Pulaski, Virginia. CLAYTON SHEPPARD said he, himself, would not answer that question for his sister and brother. When asked if he had such a box, he said, "No, I do not." He then inquired as to why the Agents felt it necessary to knock on his door at 10:00 PM in the evening. It was explained to Mr. SHEPPARD that the Agents and the Prosecutor's Office, were attempting to verify an allegation that someone in the SHEPPARD family, had possession of papers belonging to E. HOWARD HUNT and/or DOROTHY HUNT.

CLAYTON SHEPPARD immediately replied he knew nothing about this.

He was then asked to identify all the members of his own family excluding his young children. He at first confirmed the fact that his parents FRANK CLAYTON and HELEN were deceased. He then stated that in addition to himself, he has two brothers, ROY HENSEL SHEPPARD and JAMES W. SHEPPARD. He then confirmed the fact that the names of his sisters were, TRACEY, IRENE, GAY, LENA, and NANCY.

He was asked if any of them had a safe deposit box in Pulaski, Virginia. He replied the Agents could get that answer from other interviews. He was asked if his wife had a safe deposit box or had access to a safe deposit box in Pulaski, Virginia. He replied he wouldn't answer that question. He preferred the Agents ask his wife. When asked if he would make her available for an interview this evening, he said she was playing Bingo at the American Legion and was due home between Special Agent LANO then asked Mr. SHEPPARD if he would contact JAMES and LENA and inform them that it was an urgent request that we interview them this evening. He agreed to do so, but went further adding, he would not pressure them into an agreement. SHEPPARD did agree to permit the Agents to interview his wife upon her return.

At approximately 11:30 PM, while parked on the street adjacent to the SHEPPARD residence, CLAYTON SHEPPARD handed Special Agent LANO a slip of paper, which bore the address, 5375 Duke Street. SHEPPARD commented that "all of them are there, ROY, JAMES, and LENA' you'll get all the answers to your questions."

CLAYTON SHEPPARD further stated that JAMES agreed to talk to the Agents if they could arrive there shortly. It was agreed that after the interview of Mrs. SHEPPARD, LENA, JAMES and ROY would be contacted.

CLAYTON SHEPPARD commented during the course of the interview that whenever he hears of a problem that involves ROY; he just turns his head away and refuses to listen.

MRS. ROBERTA SHEPPARD, also known as MRS. CLAYTON K. SHEPPARD, was advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and their purpose in contacting her at this hour.

She was asked if she had a safe deposit box in Pulaski, Virginia, and she replied, "No".

She was asked if she had access to a safe deposit box in Pulaski, Virginia, and she again said, "No".

She was asked if she knew if anyone in the SHEPPARD family had a safe deposit box in Pulaski, Virginia. Before she could answer, her husband informed her that she did not have to speak for the rest of the family, to which she readily agreed.

She was then asked if she ever had in her possession or seen in anyone else's possession, any documents which purportedly belonged to HOWARD or DOROTHY HUNT. She replied "No".

She was asked if she ever had or had ever seen any document that contained information detrimental to any political figure or politician in the possession of any member of the SHEPPARD family. She replied "No".

When told by the agents that HUNT was a figure connected with the "Watergate Affair", she stated she knows nothing about the Watergate case and never read about it in the press.

When asked if she could recall the last time she was in Pulaski, MRS. SHEPPARD advised that she was there in May or June of this year and in fact, she visits Pulaski every summer for at least two weeks.

JAMES W. SHEPPARD was located and interviewed in Apartment 216, at 5375 Duke Street, Alexandria, Virginia.

SHEPPARD said he was aware of the Agents investigation and his only concern was over the lateness of the interview. He intimated the Agents could have found him at this address in the daytime. He was informed that it was not until 11:30 PM this evening, August 15, 1974, that the Agents even knew he lived in Alexandria, Virginia.

He stated when he learned from CLAYTON SHEPPARD, his brother, that the Agents wanted to speak with him, he placed a call to his lawyer, BEN COTTON, in Mc Lean, Virginia. The attorney had not returned the call, however, he was willing to answer any questions at this time.

He was asked if he had a safe deposit box or if he shared a safe deposit box with anyone in Pulaski, Virginia, or elsewhere? He replied he shares a box with his sister LENA in Pulaski, Virginia.

He was then asked the following question:

"Would you, JAMES SHEPPARD, if asked by a representative of the United States Government, travel to or accompany someone to Pulaski, Virginia for the purpose of inspecting that box?" He replied "No." He stated "if anyone wants to get into the box, let them get a court order."

He stated the last time he was in the box was about two years ago. He accompanied his sister LENA to the bank. They were looking for the house deed. He could not recall the date but stated the bank would have a record of it.

He was asked if, to his knowledge, the box contained any documents belonging to DOROTHY or HOWARD HUNT? He replied that the box he shares with LENA to the best of his knowledge contained personal papers.

LENA SHEPPARD was interviewed in Apartment 216, at 5375 Duke Street, Alexandria, Virginia, after being advised of the identities of the Agents. She acknowledged she knew the purpose of the interview.

LENA SHEPPARD stated as follows:

She and her brother, JAMES W. SHEPPARD share a safe deposit box in Pulaski, Virginia. The last time she entered this box was about two years ago. Her mother wanted to know if the deed to the house was contained in the box. She, her mother, and JAMES went to the bank to look for the deed. She stated she could not recall the date, but believed the bank has a record. In any event, they did not find the deed. That was the last time she was in the box.

When asked if she would travel to Pulaski, Virginia with a representative of the Government merely to inspect the contents of the box, she replied "no". She stated the box contains only personal papers and perhaps some of ROY's bonds; but nothing else. She stated the box does not contain any documents belonging to HOWARD HUNT or DOROTHY HUNT. She stated she has not seen any such documents, nor has ROY SHEPPARD ever lead her to believe that he had any. She stated ROY SHEPPARD has not asked her to hide or hold any documents either in the apartment or in the bank box in Pulaski, Virginia.

At the conclusion of the interview LENA SHEPPARD was served with Federal Grand Jury subpoena ordering her to appear before that body on August 16, 1974 at 10:30 A.M.

ROY HENSEL SHEPPARD was located and interviewed in Apartment 216, at 5375 Duke Street, Alexandria, Virginia, where he furnished the following statement:

He first heard of a news story concerning his concealing or moving documents of HOWARD or DOROTHY HUNT, when he received a telephone call from LES WHITTEN. WHITTEN told him that it was important that he speak with SHEPPARD about his actions on behalf of HUNT. ROY SHEPPARD said he told WHITTEN that he had nothing to say, since he had already testified before the Grand Jury and the Senate Select Committee and if WHITTEN wanted any information, WHITTEN could read that material.

ROY SHEPPARD said he learned from WHITTEN that JACK ANDERSON had written a story in a Washington state newspaper on Monday of this week, that SHEPPARD had documents which contain derogatory information about NELSON ROCKEFELLER. SHEPPARD told the Agents he wished ANDERSON would print a story like that so he could file a libel suit. He said the story was a lie and that he never saw or had any such documents.

At this point, ROY SHEPPARD said he was attempting to contact his lawyer this evening and would prefer to discuss certain areas with his attorney first, before going further.

ROY SHEPPARD was then orally advised of his rights by Special Agent LANO and after acknowledging the fact that he understood his rights, he agreed to answer some additional questions.

ROY H. SHEPPARD was asked if he had in his possession or seen in anyone else's possession, any documents purportedly belonging to HOWARD HUNT or DOROTHY HUNT, which dealt with NELSON ROCKEFELLER or any other political figure. He replied, "No." He then stated that he has had no documents that ever were or could have been related to any "Watergate figure" or any candidate for political office.

He further stated he has taken no documents to Pulaski, Virginia, to conceal in a safe deposit box. He was then asked if he concealed any Watergate related material in a safe deposit box, anywhere in the United States of America and he said, "No."

He concluded by stating he did not ask any member of his family to place any documents pertaining to persons involved in the Watergate affair in a safe deposit box in Pulaski, Virginia.

SHEPPARD was then served with a subpoena to appear before the Federal Grand Jury on August 16, 1974 at 10:30 AM.

Before leaving, SHEPPARD was asked if he possessed or had access to a safe deposit box and he said, "No."

JAMES WALTER MC CORD, JR.

The Special Prosecution Force advised on August 16, 1974, that in answer to the subpoenas served on Lena Sheppard, and Roy Sheppard, James W. Sheppard has agreed to proceed to Pulaski, Virginia, and with power of attorney for Clayton Sheppard, voluntarily consent to search of the two safe deposit boxes previously identified.

JAMES W. SHEPPARD, 5375 Duke Street, Alexandria, Virginia, appeared at the Bank of Virginia-Pulaski, #1 Main Street, Pulaski, Virginia, at which time he advised that he is currently a co-holder, along with his sister, LENA B. SHEPPARD, of box #446 at that bank. In addition, he advised that his mother, Mrs. C. F. SHEPPARD, deceased, and his brother CLAYTON K. SHEPPARD, are co-holders of box #147, at the bank.

Present at the time of contact with Mr. SHEPPARD were Mr. PETER M. KREINDLER, Special Assistant, Special Prosecutor's Office, Washington, D. C.; Assistant Special Agent in Charge, ARTHUR F. NEHRBASS of the Richmond Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Special Agent PATRICK J. RUTZINSKI of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Radford, Virginia, and Mr. EUGENE R. NUCKOLS, Attorney at Law, Counselor for the Bank of Virginia-Pulaski. SHEPPARD advised that he had the Power of Attorney to open on a one-time basis, box #147, which Power of Attorney was signed by his brother, CLAYTON K. SHEPPARD.

Mr. KREINDLER explained to Mr. SHEPPARD his Constitutional right not to have a search made of the above two described safety deposit boxes without a search warrant, after which Mr. SHEPPARD voluntarily signed a consent to search form with respect to the above boxes.

Thereafter, safe deposit box #147 was opened by Mr. SHEPPARD, at which time it was determined that this safe deposit box contained some silver dollars, some antique jewelry, some United States bonds, and also some personal papers. Subsequently safe deposit box #446 was opened, at which time it was determined that this box contained only some United States bonds.

The two safe deposit boxes were thereafter secured in the Bank of Virginia-Pulaski vault by Mr. SHEPPARD.

JAMES WALTER MC CORD, JR.

On August 19, 1974, James Vorenberg of the Special Prosecution Force telephonically contacted a representative of the FBI and advised that during the prior weekend his office received information that one Raymond Perry who could be reached at 723-2032, in the Metropolitan area, had information relative to this particular investigation and that Perry had furnished this information to columnist Jack Anderson. Vorenberg requested that Perry be interviewed regarding his knowledge of this incident.

Investigation by the Baltimore, Maryland, FBI Office determined the subscriber to telephone number 723-2032, was Raymond L. Terry of the Eastmont Apartments, 7054 Eastern Avenue, Washington, D. C.

RAYMOND L. TERRY, 7054 Eastern Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. (WDC), Apartment 104, telephone number 723-2032, Subcontractor, Delivery Service, Department of Transportation, 500 H Street, N. W., WDC, was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the purpose for the interview, which was to determine whether he had knowledge of documents, belonging to E. HOWARD HUNT, JR. or DOROTHY HUNT, which contained information detrimental to former GOVERNOR NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER. TERRY was advised that the writer was interviewing on behalf of SPECIAL WATERGATE PROSECUTOR LEON JAWORSKI. TERRY, hereafter, furnished the following voluntary information:

TERRY advised JACK ANDERSON was known to him only as a newspaper columnist and he has never talked to JACK ANDERSON or LES WHITTEN or any of their aides relative to documents belonging to E. HOWARD HUNT, JR. or DOROTHY HUNT which contained information detrimental to NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER.

TERRY advised that he knows ROY SHEPPARD because they work on the same job and SHEPPARD is a friend of his, but they disagree on political issues because he is a Democrat and SHEPPARD is a Republican. TERRY advised that SHEPPARD never discussed anything relative to documents belonging to E. HOWARD HUNT, JR. or DOROTHY HUNT which contained information detrimental to NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER prior to August 17, 1974.

According to TERRY, SHEPPARD called him on this date and asked him if he had told anyone that he (SHEPPARD) knew of the existence of documents belonging to E. HOWARD HUNT, JR. or DOROTHY HUNT. TERRY advised he thought SHEPPARD was joking because this was the first time he had ever heard anything relative to documents or NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER.

conversation she directed questions to him. Of interest to VOLNER was the following:

The enclosed memorandum to referenced Philadelphia airtel dated 4/24/73, page three, paragraph one, contains statement "MC GRUDER said that there was a third proposal by LIDDY which he believed was for approximately $350,000." A review of this indicates that the amount was actually $250,000. It is evident that the LIDDY proposal was in fact $250,000 inasmuch as relevant questions asked MC GRUDER during the polygraph set forth in the questions the sum of $250,000.

VOLNER also wanted an elaboration on the statement paragraph three, page three, of this memorandum "MC GRUDER said that he has no specific recollection that JOHN MITCHELL in this third meeting voiced absolute approval of LIDDY's contemplated use of electronic devices in the Democratic National Committee Headquarters." It was explained to VOLNER that it is self-evident that MITCHELL had approved LIDDY's overall operation and proposal because MC GRUDER answered yes to one question "Do you know for certain that JOHN MITCHELL agreed to fund $250,000 for LIDDY's covert activities?" (Question 7, series 2, 4/19/73). It was explained that in otherwords as of 4/19/73 MC GRUDER was claiming he did not recall specifically discussing with MITCHELL electronic devices being used in LIDDY's proposed covert activities. VOLNER said this clarified the issue because MC GRUDER had after that date acknowledged that he did recall MITCHELL granting approval apparently including approval of use of electronic devices. It was pointed out to VOLNER that the memorandum also stated that it was evident that MC GRUDER had additional information he had not disclosed; however, the polygraph could not continue until the polygraph examiner had been more thoroughly briefed.

Also in answer to her inquiry she was advised that SA ANGELO LANO of the Washington Field Office was present when the polygraph examination was conducted. Further, that his name appears on the polygraph charts of SA PEARCE.

PH 139-115

Washington Field Office was advised to furnish VOLNER a copy of any additional written report of this interview including FD 302.

VOLNER advised that it was possible and even probable that SA PEARCE may be called to testify at the MITCHELL, GORDON STRACHAN, ET AL, trial scheduled for September 1974 in Washington, D.C., inasmuch as SA PEARCE's memorandum apparently will be disclosed to the defense. She said she did not see any problems involved.

The above is for information of the Bureau and no additional activity is being taken by Philadelphia in regards to this matter.

NUCKOLS, Attorney at Law, Counselor for the Bank of Virginia-Pulaski. SHEPPARD advised that he had the Power of Attorney to open on a one-time basis, box #147, which Power of Attorney was signed by his brother, CLAYTON K. SHEPPARD.

Mr. KREINDLER explained to Mr. SHEPPARD his Constitutional right not to have a search made of the above two described safety deposit boxes without a search warrant, after which Mr. SHEPPARD voluntarily signed a consent to search form with respect to the above boxes.

Thereafter, safe deposit box #147 was opened by Mr. SHEPPARD, at which time it was determined that this safe deposit box contained some silver dollars, some antique jewelry, some United States bonds, and also some personal papers. Subsequently safe deposit box #446 was opened, at which time it was determined that this box contained only some United States bonds.

The two safe deposit boxes were thereafter secured in the Bank of Virginia-Pulaski vault by Mr. SHEPPARD.

LALA TRACY, 220 Pierce Avenue, Pulaski, Virginia, was contacted by SA PATRICK J. RUTZINSKI of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and at the outset, was apprized that the contact was being made at the specific request of the Special Prosecutor's Office in Washington, D. C., and the purpose of the contact was to obtain the names of her relatives, particularly her sisters and brothers.

She readily admitted that ROY SHEPPARD was her brother; however, upon contacting her son, BILLY TRACY, who resides next door to her, she respectfully declined to furnish the names of her relatives, stating that she did not want to become involved, nor did she want to testify in a Court of Law against her brother.

During the course of contact with TRACY, it was learned from her that she is the eldest of eight (8) children and that ROY SHEPPARD is about 54 years old. She related that all of her brothers and sisters, with the exception of one of her sisters, Mrs. LUCADO, reside in the northern Virginia area, around Washington, D. C., all residing within about 25 miles of where her brother ROY is currently living.

She related that her brother, ROY SHEPPARD, had previously been in contact with his brothers and sisters, exact date not specified, and had related that he had become involved in some sort of difficulty and that the members of the family should not talk about him with anyone as he did not want to get the family involved.

She later had determined that ROY was involved in "Watergate" and stated that ROY had operated a delivery service of some sort and apparently had made pickups from and deliveries to the Presidential White House in Washington, D. C., which pickups and deliveries had allegedly contained "Watergate" papers. However, ROY claimed that these pickups and deliveries were in boxes and he, in fact, did not even

JAMES WALTER MC CORD, JR., ET AL.
BURGLARY OF DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE HEADQUARTERS, JUNE 17, 1972
INTERCEPTION OF COMMUNICATIONS

Based on information filed with him on August 16, 1974, U. S. Magistrate Donald W. Huffman, Western District of Virginia, Roanoke, Virginia, issued search warrants on that date for safe deposit boxes #147 and #446 at the Bank of Virginia, Pulaski, Virginia. On the same day, James W. Sheppard signed a Consent to Search form for his box (#446) and, pursuant to a Power of Attorney, for his brother's box (#147). There being no further need of the search warrants, both were returned unexecuted to Mr. Huffman on August 19, 1974, by Special Agent Patrick J. Rutzinski of the Richmond, Virginia, FBI Office. There is enclosed one copy each of the Power of Attorney granted to James Sheppard and the Consent to Search form, for the information of the Special Prosecution Force.

Also enclosed is the original and two copies of four subpoenas duces tecum directed to Roy H. Sheppard: Lena Sheppard; Clayton K. Sheppard; and James W. Sheppard, which command each to appear before the grand jury on Friday, August 16, 1974, at Washington, D. C., and to "Bring with you all papers of E. Howard Hunt and Dorothy Hunt and the Committee to Reelect the President, or all others in your custody and control which were received from Roy H. Sheppard." None of these subpoenas were served and all are in the same condition as when received from Mr. Peter M. Kreindler, Special Prosecution Force, on August 16, 1974.

This will also confirm that copies of subpoenas served on Lena Sheppard and Roy Hensel Sheppard on August 16, 1974, commanding their appearance before the grand jury on August 16, 1974, on which the Marshal's Return was executed, were hand-delivered to the Special Prosecution Force by Special Agent Angelo J. Lano of the Washington, D. C., FBI Office, on that same date.

RE: JAMES VORENBERG
 Special Prosecutor's Office
 Transcription of White House Tapes

On August 22, 1974, while in Kansas City, James Vorenberg, Acting Special Prosecutor in the absence of Mr. Jaworski and Mr. Ruth, phoned me. He said that he had received information that we had monitored one of the tapes and that a representative of our Washington Field Office had gone to the Special Prosecutor's Office stating that there was certain material in the tape which might be very sensitive and inquired what could be done to make sure that it is not disclosed.

Mr. Vorenberg said he construed our role as being that of transcribers on a mechanical basis. He said that he further thought no use should be made of the material and that it should be handled in such a manner. He said further that he felt that the clerks engaged in the transcription were actually assigned to the Special Prosecutor's Office and the supervisors of them were in the role of relieving them or generally managing and were not to assume the role of monitors. He hoped he would receive assurances that there would be no record made of the tape and no maintenance of such records in our files.

I told Mr. Vorenberg that I would check into this although I felt that our role had been pretty well established and further that under a strict construction of the arrangement we were not going to try to maintain any monitorship of the tapes.

I then phoned Mr. Callahan who said that, in a subsequent contact with the Special Prosecutor's Office, this matter had been resolved and there appeared to be no conflict in our action which was predicated on the revelation of some very sensitive material, so sensitive that were it to be given publicity inadvertently it would harm our national security.

Reference is made to your memorandum dated August 21, 1974, requesting electronic surveillance information on captioned individuals for the period January 1, 1972, to the present.

A review of appropriate Bureau records reveals that none of the individuals set forth in your memorandum was ever the subject of a surreptitious entry or the target of direct electronic surveillance coverage by the FBI. Further, this Bureau has never maintained any electronic surveillance on premises which were known to have been owned, leased, or licensed by these individuals, nor were any of their conversations ever monitored by an electronic device of the FBI.

Attached is an affidavit regarding the foregoing information.

It is suggested that other Federal investigative agencies be contacted to determine if they had coverage of the subjects of your inquiry.

In accordance with the request of Mr. Larry Iason Special Prosecution Force, on September 12, 1974, there is attached one copy each of an FD-302 setting forth the interview of John N. Mitchell on June 15, 1973, and an FD-302 setting forth the interview of John D. Ehrlichman on May 11, 1973. Also attached hereto is a copy of a Washington Field Office teletype dated July 24, 1972, which contains on page two information obtained from Hugh Sloan on July 24, 1972.

Mr. Iason requested an interview report for E. Howard Hunt for an apparent interview of him on May 23, 1973. It is noted that on this date Hunt was not interviewed by the FBI; rather, Hunt testified before the Federal grand jury in connection with the Daniel Ellsberg case. There is no FBI interview report concerning that appearance.

This memorandum will also confirm advice to Mr. Iason that FBI records do not indicate that Charles W. Colson was interviewed on March 19, 1974, and that there is no interview report concerning his appearance on March 9, 1974, for fingerprinting and photographing.

The above completes FBI action relative to interview reports requested by Mr. Iason.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Reference R. E. Long memorandum to Mr. Gebhardt dated 9/11/74 which set forth the number of hours spent by agent and clerical personnel on captioned matters between 6/17/72 and 8/31/74. Mr. Callahan requested that the Administrative Division translate these figures into man-years and cost for the Director's information.

The personnel time devoted to Watergate and related matters between 6/17/72 and 8/31/74 amounted to approximately 52 man-years, consisting of 37 agent man-years and 15 clerical man-years. The cost for these employees during that period of time was approximately $1,112,600.

The foregoing is submitted for information.

Rodney Nordell, "Christian Science Monitor," telephone number 617-262-2300, extension 2338, telephonically inquired of SA John J. Hinchcliff if Mr. Kelley had any statements as to the reports of FBI burglaries.

When asked specifically what he was referring to, Mr. Nordell said that CBS Radio News stated that Mr. Buzhardt had testified to the Senate Watergate Committee concerning FBI burglaries and has stated that the "Rolling Stone" magazine documented more than 100 cases since 1969. CBS News stated that Samuel Dash of the Watergate Committee did not pursue the allegation concerning the FBI.

The External Affairs Division, through its liaison with CBS, obtained a copy (attached) of the broadcast in question, which CBS stated was based on an advance news release for the forthcoming issue of "Rolling Stone."

A review of the CBS newscast indicated an attempt to tie an allegation of "at least 100 break-ins, apparently political in nature," supposedly documented by the magazine "Rolling Stone," with the alleged testimony of former White House counsel Fred Buzhardt before the Senate Watergate Committee that Buzhardt knew of "break-ins since 1969 and said they were performed by the FBI."

SA Hinchcliffe advised Mr. Nordell that any inquiries concerning the Watergate investigation should be directed to the office of Special Prosecutor Jaworski.

ACTION

The External Affairs Division is endeavoring to obtain a copy of the advance press release concerning the forthcoming "Rolling Stone" magazine article about "political burglaries."

In 1970, that was a break-in--the first of three--on the office of Gerald Lefcourt, a New York lawyer representing the Black Panthers and other anti-establishment clients.

There were others in the next two years, and continuing after the Watergate break-in...on Chilean diplomats...newsmen...lawyers for antiwar protestors...organizations considered anti-Administration.

The magazine Rolling Stone this week documents "at least 100 break-ins, apparently political in nature." In virtually all cases, valuables were not taken. The targets seemed to be files and information.

Samuel Dash, counsel for the Senate Watergate Committee, says his staff learned about some of them, but didn't pursue them because they seemed outside the committee's mandate of "campaign activities."

Re: Nixon's Subpoenas

Mr. Adams called to advise as follows:

The Special Prosecutor's Office (Jim Neal) has made arrangements through Jack Miller, Nixon's Washington representative, for Lt. Col. Jack Brennan, Aide to Mr. Nixon, to call our Senior Resident Agent Bill Carroll to advise that arrangements have been made for Agent Carroll and one U.S. Marshal to personally serve Mr. Nixon at 5:00 p.m. this afternoon (8:00 p.m. Washington time). Agent Carroll will serve the subpoena we have been asked to handle and the U.S. Marshal will serve two subpoenas he has to serve apparently from defendants in the Watergate case. Our subpoena is for Mr. Nixon to appear at the trial which is scheduled to commence October 1 to testify on the chain of evidence regarding the tapes.

Mr. Adams will not call Mr. Kelley tonight unless problems or developments arise which would warrant such.

The attached reports the service of subpoenas on former President Richard M. Nixon at San Clemente, California, at 5:50 p.m., Pacific Daylight Time, 9/19/74, by Agents of the Los Angeles Office and a Deputy U. S. Marshal. These arrangements were worked out between the Special Prosecutor's Office and Mr. Nixon's Washington, D. C. attorney, Herbert J. Miller, Jr.

It is noted according to the Los Angeles Agents, during the conversation with Mr. Nixon he was not observed to move his left arm in any manner and kept it tight by his side. The U. S. Marshal indicated that one of the subpoenas he was serving was in connection with the John Mitchell case and was being served by the defense.

James Walter McLeod

RE: SUBPOENA TO BE SERVED ON FORMER PRESIDENT RICHARD M. NIXON

On September 18, 1974, Leon Jaworski, Special Prosecutor in the Watergate matter, phoned me. He said a subpoena had been issued and should be served on former President Nixon. He said that an offer had been made to stipulate concerning the testimony that the Presidential tapes had been kept secure. This stipulation, however, had not been accepted and now it is necessary to get the testimony of former President Nixon to this effect. He said that due to adverse publicity ensuing from the previous attempt to serve a subpoena on former President Nixon as a result of United States Marshal activities, this service would be inadvisable. He thereupon asked that we make this service.

I informed Mr. Jaworski that I would consider this and would call him back. Thereafter I did return his call and told him in accordance with discussions had with Messrs. Mintz and Adams and Jenkins, we would make the service through an Agent of the Los Angeles Office. I told him, however, that prior to this, we would like to have him call the Attorney General's office and inform them of his request to us.

Mr. Jaworski said that he would do so and I subsequently learned that he had informed the Deputy Attorney General of this request and that no objection had been made to such service.

As the records will indicate, former President Nixon was served with a subpoena September 18, 1974.

H.R. 16750 was introduced on 9/19/74 by Edward S. Koch (Democrat-Liberal, New York) for himself and 19 other members; 16751 was introduced on 9/19/74 by Koch for himself and Michael J. Harrington (Democrat, Massachusetts); 16794 was introduced on 9/23/74 by Koch for himself and eight other members. The three bills are identical in content and language and all have been referred to the House Judiciary Committee. A copy of H.R. 16750 is attached for information.

The question has been raised whether this legislation, if enacted into law, would eventually force public disclosure of all matters concerning the so-called "White House 17" wiretaps, which were operated by the FBI with the approval of the Attorney General under the authority of the President in order to identify those responsible for leaks which seriously compromised the national security. This memorandum responds to that question in the negative.

It is felt that the language in captioned bills is open to serious question as to its completeness. A close reading discloses that many of the major phrases contained therein are not susceptible to specific definition, and, if tested, the law could very well be held unconstitutionally vague.

Memorandum to Mr. W. R. Wannall

Re: H.R. 16750

H.R. 16751

H.R. 16794

Even if the law's validity were upheld on appeal, a very good case can be made that, in the narrow sense the court is required to interpret the language of legislation, the electronic surveillances were not in any manner "Watergate-related" nor "related to Watergate matters" (other than as a corollary matter which came to light during, or as a result of, a sustained attack upon an administration). This is not felt to be a sufficiently strong causal relationship to justify application of the law to our electronic coverage.

However, if it were determined that this legislation did carry the power to force a full public disclosure of all matters pertaining to the "White House 17" (and obviously Executive privilege, national security and/or Top Secret classification would no longer be a valid defense against disclosure), this would have a severely detrimental effect upon the FBI in the form of possible deterioration of the Bureau's public image as well as civil and/or criminal action against present and former FBI employees.

ACTION:

It is recommended that the Legal Counsel Division analyze this proposed legislation, and if the conclusion is reached that it could lead to detailed disclosure of the above-mentioned coverage, recipients of this memorandum be so advised and Congressional Services thereupon closely follow its progress.

Wew
Pam

ADDENDUM BY THE LEGAL COUNSEL DIVISION, 10/7/74, JH:deh

The Legal Counsel Division is unable to speculate as to the answer for the hypothetical question raised. Technically, "Watergate - Related" should pertain only to matters involving the break in of the Democratic National Headquarters. Watergate has come to mean much more than that burglary, however. We feel it is extremely unlikely that this poorly worded bill would be passed in this form and suggest its progress be followed by the Congressional Services Unit.

Date of transcription 9/20/74

Special Agents WILLIAM C. CARROLL and JOHNNIE L. JOYCE, JR., in the company of Deputy United States Marshal JOHN WHITMORE, were driven on a golf cart from the United States Secret Service Compound, which is located on the property of the United States Coast Guard adjacent to the residence of RICHARD M. NIXON, by RONALD ZIEGLER, former Press Secretary to the President and present staff member of RICHARD M. NIXON at San Clemente, California. ZIEGLER drove to the driveway of the residence of RICHARD M. NIXON and indicated to the Agents and Deputy WHITMORE that they should wait in the driveway. He then entered what appeared to be the side entrance of the residence, which is a distance of approximately 20 feet from where the golf cart was parked.

Shortly thereafter, RICHARD M. NIXON and ZIEGLER exited the front door of the residence and walked briskly towards the waiting Agents and Deputy United States Marshal. Mr. NIXON was smiling as he approached and stated, "Good evening, gentlemen. They're keeping you busy these days." It is noted Mr. NIXON had walked approximately 25 feet from the front entrance prior to stopping and shaking hands with Special Agent CARROLL. At this time, which was 5:50 PM (Pacific Daylight Time), he was handed a subpoena by Special Agent CARROLL commanding him to appear in the United States District Court, District of Columbia, on October 1, 1974, at 10:00 AM, in the case of "United States of America v. JOHN N. MITCHELL, et al."

Mr. NIXON accepted the subpoena with his right hand and immediately reached across his body and handed it to RONALD ZIEGLER, who was standing to his left and slightly behind. He then was handed two subpoenas by Deputy United States Marshal WHITMORE which he also handed to ZIEGLER in the same manner.

At this point, Mr. NIXON again shook hands with Special Agent CARROLL, stepped back, indicating he was leaving, and stated something to the effect, "Did you have a good drive down?" As he turned to return to his residence, he thanked the Agents and the Deputy United States Marshal, waved his right hand and returned to the residence through the same door from which he had exited.

Reference is made to the memorandum of Henry S. Ruth, Jr., dated October 1, 1974, seeking a copy of reports prepared concerning John Wesley Dean, III, when he was an applicant for the position of Counsel to the President.

This will confirm advice given on October 3, 1974, by Special Agent C. A. In line with that request, transmitted herewith is one copy each of the following memoranda and reports:

In connection with the trial of United States v. Mitchell, et al., which began on October 1, 1974, the Watergate Special Prosecution Force needs to have a copy of the reports prepared concerning John W. Dean III when he was an applicant for the position of Counsel to the President. In view of the fact that this trial has commenced already, we would appreciate it if you could respond to these requests at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for your continued assistance.

INTERCEPTION OF COMMUNICATIONS

The Director has inquired whether we should not have a release before furnishing the Special Prosecutor's Office (SPO) with copies of applicant reports dealing with John W. Dean III.

In this regard, the SPO thought the White House had requested the FBI to conduct a Special Inquiry concerning Dean when he was being considered for the position of Counsel to the President. However, the fact is that no such Special Inquiry was ever conducted for the White House and the only applicant investigation we conducted on Dean was in 1969 at the request of the Department when Dean was a Departmental applicant for a "special candidate" position (Bureau file 77-107005).

The Director is quite right that had we conducted a White House Special Inquiry concerning Dean we would have needed a release from the White House prior to disseminating results of such an investigation to the SPO or to any other agency. Since the only applicant reports we have concerning Dean related to investigation conducted at the request of the Department, and the SPO is a part of the Department of Justice, there appeared to be no need to have a release before furnishing copies of Dean's Departmental applicant investigation to the SPO.

ACTION: This is for information.

Pursuant to your request, there is attached a copy of the policy statement followed by this Bureau in regard to the retention of investigative notes by our Special Agents. The attached statement was received in a memorandum from Herbert J. Miller, Jr., Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, dated April 18, 1961, and the substance of the policy was incorporated verbatim into written instructions issued to all Special Agents of the FBI.

If a Special Agent is questioned concerning the destruction of his investigative notes, he should reply that it is a policy established by the Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, Department of Justice. For your assistance, United States v. Terrell, 474 F2d 872 (2d Cir. 1973) and numerous cases cited therein support the proposition that the Jencks Act does not impose a duty on our Special Agents to retain rough notes when their contents are incorporated in official reports and they destroy their notes in good faith.

For your additional information, our written instructions to our Agents provide in relevant part:

"An Agent's notes of a precise character, made to record his own findings, must always be retained. Such notes include, but are not limited to, accountants' work papers, and notes covering matters, such as crime scene searches, laboratory examinations, and fingerprint examinations. If a doubtful situation arises, resolve the question in favor of keeping the notes."

In other situations than those just set forth the agent's notes do not constitute a statement under the statute and need not be retained. Whenever the issue of note retention is raised during trial, one problem is that of demonstrating that the agent's discarded notes were not a producible statement. We do not think that the non-existence of the notes is an obstacle in this regard. If the agent is operating under clear instructions to retain the types of notes described above, and if it is his custom to follow those instructions, he can so testify, and we feel that compliance with the statute can be adequately shown by this method.

In any case where notes have been discarded under the above criteria we will be prepared to argue the correctness of such action in the courts.

Please feel free to communicate further at any time regarding this important subject.

On October 25, 1974, Jill W. Volner, Assistant Special Prosecutor, Watergate Special Prosecution Force, telephonically advised me that Special Agent Daniel C. Mahan of the Washington Field Office will be called <sup>in</sup> as a prosecution witness in the Watergate prosecution currently pending <sup>in</sup> the United States District Court in the District of Columbia. She said that one question that they expect will be raised by the defense on cross-examination is the matter of destruction of investigative notes prepared by Special Agent Mahan. She said that this matter will be of particular interest to the defense because one of the allegations in the case is that Kenneth Parkinson, one of the defendants, is accused of having destroyed certain notes that he made. Miss Volner asked whether we had any written Bureau policy that could be used as a guide in presenting SA Mahan's testimony so that the destruction of his rough investigative notes could be explained and justified as a written and lawful practice of the Bureau.

I told Miss Volner that I would prefer that FBI manual sections not be offered in evidence and asked her whether some other means for establishing the Bureau policy might be acceptable to her. She said that it would be possible for her to have a document indicating the Bureau policy and that she could use that document as a basis for examining the Agent in his testimony in chief and she could hold it up for the jury to see without actually introducing it in evidence.

A review of Bureau files revealed that our manual provisions concerning the retention of investigative notes were prepared and are a verbatim copy of instructions we received from the Criminal Division of the Department by letter dated April 18, 1961. (Bufile 66-2435-2548) In general, the instructions are that written material developed during an investigation which should be retained are written statements signed by a witness, or approved or adopted by a witness, or other notes which are a verbatim recital of an oral statement by a witness. Rough notes from which the Agent subsequently prepares the FD-302 interview report form need not be retained. The instructions from the Department were issued because a decision of the Supreme Court in Campbell v. U.S., 365 U.S. 85 (1961), seemed to indicate the possibility that certain investigative notes would have to be retained. The Criminal Division interpreted that decision as not requiring the retention of rough notes later transcribed into a finished interview report.

I checked on the current law and found that the decisions have confirmed the Department opinion. For example, U.S. v. Terrell, 474 F2d 872 (2d Cir. 1973), holds that the Jencks Act does not require law enforcement officers to retain rough notes when the contents of their notes are incorporated in official interview reports.

On October 29, 1974, I spoke with SA Mahan of Washington Field Office, and advised him of the request received from Miss Volner, and asked when he anticipated being called as a witness. SA Mahan said that while he was originally scheduled to be called at the end of November, he now expects to be called next week, November 4th through 8, 1974. I told Mr. Mahan that we were preparing an appropriate response for Miss Volner and that he would be notified.

I had prepared a clean copy of the Department's instructions concerning this matter and it is my opinion that the best way to protect the Bureau's interests here is to send a letter to Miss Volner explaining our policy and attaching a copy of the Department's instructions. Therefore, attached is a proposed letter to Miss Volner with a copy of the Department instructions attached.

Re U.S. v. Mitchell

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the attached letter be sent to Miss Volner.

2. That the attached letter to Miss Volner be hand delivered to her by SA Daniel C. Mahan, who is assigned on special assignment to the Administrative Division.

1. Attached is a receipt from Sears Roebuck and Company reflecting the purchase of six stereo headsets.
2. Attached is a receipt from IBM reflecting the rental of six IBM Selectric typewriters from 8/5/74 to 9/6/74.

A. Attached hereto are copies of expense vouchers for expenses incurred by Stenographers during July and August. Vouchers for the month of September will be furnished to WFO by the employees and thereafter submitted to the Bureau as part of the next report.

Those persons whose July and August vouchers are attached are identified as: CYNTHIA ANN LARKIN, JO ANN REEDER, DARLENE J. REINCKE, DONNA R. GIEDL, DIANE T. ARNOLD, MARYANN QUIRK, MARY MULCAHEY and PATRICIA PONTBRIAND.

B. Copies of vouchers for the month of July for the following employees are attached: RENEE R. DE PRIEST and MERLE SOTTOS.

maintain a Xerox copy of her expense voucher, which is identical to that submitted by SOTTOS. WFO is obtaining a copy from the Newark Division and will submit the copy with the next report.

E. Expenses incurred by four other stenographers who arrived at WFO on August 22, 1974, and who departed on or about 8/30/74, will be forwarded upon their arrival at WFO.

Reference is made to the memorandum of Henry S. Ruth, Jr., Deputy Special Prosecutor, dated August 13, 1973, entitled "Indexes of Persons Interviewed by the FBI." In compliance with that request, attached are two copies each of two printouts as of October 8, 1974 (one alphabetical by name of person contacted and the other by case number). Each printout includes the specific information for all the case numbers indicated, the titles of which are enumerated on the first page of each printout. dl

These indexes include all of the information contained in the indexes previously furnished the Special Prosecution Force and the additional information developed since the last printout. In view of this fact, the Special Prosecution Force may wish to destroy those indexes which are now superseded.

JUNE 17, 1972

INTERCEPTION OF COMMUNICATION

Pursuant to a request from Assistant Watergate Special Prosecutor James F. Neal to determine whether or not Everette Howard Hunt, Jr., was staying at the Hotel Pintor
Goya, Madrid, Spain, during the period June 29 to July 3, 1972, the following additional investigation was conducted:

[REDACTED] advised she had no further information currently available concerning Duncan
Ross, a citizen of the United States, who contacted the Visa
Office on July 3, 1972, concerning the loss of his wife's Alien Registration Card. [REDACTED] noted Ross resembled photographs of E. Howard Hunt, but could not state positively Ross and Hunt are identical. She pointed out that Ross bore an "Official" United States Passport.

On September 17, 1974, the files of the Passport
Office, Department of State, 1425 K Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., were reviewed in an effort to locate a photograph of Duncan Ross.

Passport Y 1007730 was issued to Duncan Baker Ross,
Jr., on June 18, 1971. This is an "Official" Government Passport since Ross is employed by the Department of the Navy, Naval Research Laboratory, Washington, D. C.

A review of Ross' photograph determined that he bears no likeness to Everette Howard Hunt.

On September 19, 1974, a copy of Ross' photograph was furnished to Assistant Watergate Special Prosecutor
James F. Neal.

In view of the above, no further investigation is being conducted relative to this matter.

Captioned individual is a member of the Washington News Bureau of the "Los Angeles Times" and is a social acquaintance of SA Richard C. Dennis, Jr., by reason of the fact he lives in close proximity to SA Dennis.

On the morning of this date, 11-12-74, Mr. Houston invited SA Dennis to a luncheon at the "O'Donnell's Restaurant." During the course of the meal, Mr. Houston inquired as to whether or not SA Dennis was aware of former Acting Director L. Patrick Gray, III's testimony in the "Cover Up" trial. Mr. Houston stated that the "Washington Post" indicated that Gray testified yesterday, 11-11-74, that former Attorney General Richard G. Kleindienst had ordered him (Gray) to fire W. Mark Felt. Houston stated that Ron Ostrow, who covers the Department of Justice for the "Los Angeles Times," was interested in writing an article concerning the possibility that W. Mark Felt was "Deep Throat." Houston stated that Ostrow had informed him that the Bureau was investigating Felt as a possible source of leaks during the Watergate investigation. He inquired of SA Dennis whether or not he had heard any information in the Bureau concerning Felt being the subject of FBI investigation. He was informed by SA Dennis that he had no knowledge of any such investigation.

On page 4 of the "Washington Post," this date, it states that former Acting Director L. Patrick Gray, III, testified during cross examination yesterday (11-11-74) that former Attorney General Kleindienst had told him (Gray) to fire Mr. Felt.

Dear Mr. Barrer:

This is to acknowledge your letters dated November 8th, one of which was directed to Assistant Director John W. Marshall.

As you undoubtedly are aware, investigations and trials currently are under way in connection with the Watergate case and it is anticipated that appeals will ensue from some of the lower court decisions in the Watergate related cases. In line with current and long-standing Departmental policy, we are precluded from disclosing either FBI files or information therefrom which could deprive individuals of the right to a fair trial or impartial adjudication.

In addition, the information to which you seek access is contained in investigatory files compiled for law enforcement purposes and is thereby exempt from public disclosure pursuant to the provisions of Title 5, United States Code, Section 552 (b) (7).
While current Departmental policy grants discretionary access to certain investigatory files of historical interest, it would not appear that your request comes within the purview of this policy, since the information you seek is contained in investigatory files which are less than 15 years old and which are substantially related to current investigative and/or law enforcement activities.

In view of the above, I regret that I am unable to be of assistance to you in your documentation endeavors.

You may appeal my decision in this matter by writing to the Attorney General, Attention: Office of Legal Counsel, Washington, D. C. 20530. Additionally, judicial review is thereafter available either in the district in which you reside or have a place of business or in the District of Columbia, the location of the records to which you seek access.

NOTE: Bufile 94-67830 contains copies of two articles from "Women Today" submitted by Myra Barrer in 1971. A general acknowledgment was forwarded to her. Bufile 94-67637 indicates that Lester Barrer had two contacts with Bureau employees in late 1973 and mid 1974 in connection with a request for information regarding our equal employment opportunity program. On both occasions, Barrer displayed an argumentative, abusive and insulting attitude toward our employees. As a result, it was recommended that we have no further contact other than written with him. This reply coordinated with representatives of the General Investigative Division.

Clarence M. Kelley, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. 20535

Dear Mr. Kelley:

We are currently compiling a book, the complete and comprehensive Documentation Index to the Impeachment Proceedings Against Richard M. Nixon - Including 'Watergate' and Related Investigations, Hearings and Prosecutions to be published in April, 1975.

This Index will completely identify all contents of the UNCLASSIFIED sources of information used in the Watergate and Impeachment investigations, hearings or prosecutions. These will be obtained from the various government agencies and private organizations involved.

This compilation is being prepared as a scholarly work and will be published in a format which will provide the legal, historical, and journalism professions with a comprehensive reference source of information - indexed in depth.

Today Publications & News Service, Inc. is both an accredited news service and a publishing company. Mrs. Myra E. Barrer and I are co-owners of the firm. Mrs. Barrer is accredited as a Congressional reporter and I am accredited to cover the White House, State Department, etc.

In the publishing area, we recently published a book entitled Women's Organizations & Leaders - 1973 Directory (December 1973), a major directory which was selected by the American Library Association as one of the "outstanding reference books of the year (1974)." The book was also recommended by the Wilson Library Bulletin with an "A" rating signifying that it is "Important even for a small basic reference collection..." The Association of College and Research Libraries gave special recognition to our book and stated that "... This source provides information... that is otherwise elusive. Recommended." Another review stated that "... this directory fills a gap... and should be a helpful addition to most libraries." The entire compilation, indexing, data processing, writing, editing, composition, and graphics of the 470-page book were done by us and our own staff. This directory is now an annual publication of our company. Another publication we prepare is The Law & Women Series.

We are interested in obtaining from you for the Documentation Index the following types of published or unpublished materials:

1--Lists of documents used by or submitted by your organization directly in the Watergate or Impeachment investigations, hearings, or prosecutions.

2--Lists of documents used by or submitted by your group as reference materials.

3--Lists of documents in your possession which are being or have been used by, or submitted by, other government agencies in the Watergate or Impeachment investigations, hearings, or prosecutions.

4—Identification of specific units of government agencies, private organizations, or of individuals who may have documents of the nature just described. This is so that we may better assure a comprehensive coverage of all potential sources of these materials.

5—A copy of the index of materials you may have already submitted to the U.S. Archives or another document storage facility such as a federal records center or a library.

6—If you have not yet sent your materials to such a storage facility, we would like to obtain a list or index of these materials when they are sent.

Once we have obtained these lists, we will then be able to determine which items are in the possession of your organization and which ones we may need a copy of for our work. If a copy is not available for our retention, perhaps we could either borrow a copy for a short period of time or review a copy in your office or library. It would be most useful, however, if we could obtain a copy for our own use.

We would also like to make arrangements to be kept informed about documents that are produced in the future or are obtained by your organization which would pertain to our research. This could be done either by a periodic telephone call to a specific member of your staff or by placing us on your mailing list. It is important to note that we are interested in obtaining the preliminary documents as well as the final ones.

We have already made or are currently making similar arrangements with other government agencies. The Watergate Special Prosecution Force and others have already agreed to assist us in this important work.

Having disclosed the scholastic and historical need for an index which will lead researchers, historians, students and the public to these important documents, may I make it clear that I am not in any way suggesting that my sole purpose in this undertaking is to obtain, for retention, documents from you or your files. I am asking to be allowed to use the documents which are in your possession. From these I need to copy only the title pages, tables of contents, indexes, and similar information which will explain to any reader what might be found within the context of the entire document. Our goal is indexing in depth.

Although we have not yet made the selection, Mrs. Barrer and I have decided to place the entire collection of those documents which we have obtained—when the Documentation Index is completed—in the Law Library of a major university or the Law Library of the U. S. Supreme Court.

On the attached pages you will find a copy of the draft Title Page, Table of Contents and a descriptive abstract prepared for librarian purposes.

We would be pleased to meet with you or a member of your staff to answer any further questions concerning this request and its fulfillment by you in the near future.

Sincerely,

This will confirm the oral request of Mr. Paul R. Michel, Special Prosecution Force, November 20, 1974, that representatives of this Bureau serve a subpoena on the person of Howard R. # HAVANA RADIO INTERVIEWS FORMER COUNTERREVOLUTIONARY

Havana International Service in Spanish 2200 GMT 3 Nov 74 C

[Interview of former Cuban counterrevolutionary leader Carlos Rivero Collado by Radio Havana general director Alfredo Vinas and others--presumably recorded]

[Text] [Vinas] Carlos Rivero Collado appears before us today. He is a former counter-revolutionary leader who has been carrying out revolutionary activities abroad for several years. His social origins and family influence led him to carry out counter-revolutionary activities at the beginning of the revolution's victory and to join various groups and participate in plans including the Playa Giron invasion. In most of these groups he held important positions. Nevertheless, his personal experience led him to understand the intrinsic amorality and repugnance of the enemies of the revolution and the decay and perversity of the capitalist system. In the same way, he found in the example and work of the revolution, his identification with the highest national values and with the interests of the people. Since that time and for many years, Rivero Collado dedicated himself to revolutionary work abroad and he assumed a practical attitude consistent with the political and ideological transformation that had taken place in him. Without further delay we turn over the microphone to the newsmen.

[Jose Prado, Radio Havana] Rivero Collado, when and under what circumstances did you leave Cuba?

[Rivero] I left Cuba on 1 January, 1959 at 5:00 in the morning. I went from the Barranquilla Airport in Colombia to Florida.

[Orlando Castellano, Radio Havana] Rivero, was there a special reason for your departure from Cuba precisely on the same day of the revolution's triumph?

[Rivero] Yes, there was a basic reason. I was 19 years old then and my father, Andres Rivero (Aguero) had been a presidential candidate in the elections of November 1958.

[Jesus Marti, PRELA] Rivero, what (?influenced) you to become a counterrevolutionary?

[Rivero] Apart from my family, there was the environmental influence, that is to say, the influence of the world in which I lived and of which I was a product. This determined why I adopted a counterrevolutionary position from the very first day of January 1959. I would say that the influence of the family, my social origin, the environment, the psychology of the world to which I belonged and the large amount of propaganda against the revolution and socialist ideas--which I thought was all true--determined that I became an enemy of the revolution on that 1 January 1959. I want to add now that I have had to mention my father's name to explain the reasons for my leaving Cuba precisely on the day of the revolution's victory. And even though I have been fully identified with the revolution for some years, my father, as you know, has been and is and I am sure will be an enemy of the revolution. That is, we both maintain completely opposed political attitudes. I want to make clear that despite this, I continue feeling the same affection, respect, and the same deep love I have had for him all my life because in truth my feelings for my father are not only inherent but I am convinced that my father was an honest man, a rare exception in the politics of the Cuba of yesterday.

[Martí] Could you tell us something about your life in the United States and of the process of your political changes?

[Rivero] On 1 January I decided to confront the revolution. I took part in a series of aggressive plans against the revolution which took place in the United States and other countries and which were plotted in 1959, 1960 and 1961 until the Playa Giron invasion in which I also took part. In this way, I was among the founders of a small counter-revolutionary group which was the first one to be founded in the United States to oppose the revolution. It was called the Rosa Blanca. I also took part in other events which occurred at those times and which I do not believe necessary to enumerate. In the Playa Giron invasion I fought in the Playa Larga front and at Playa Giron itself. I was captured and imprisoned for a little over 20 months with the rest of the war prisoners, until December 1962 when, you will recall, there was an exchange of prisoners between the United States and Cuba.

Let me add something about political positions. At the time of our imprisonment I was a political supporter of what has been called the liberal representative democracy. I was a supporter of that political concept from 1959 to 1968. Nevertheless, at the time of our imprisonment I already understood that liberal representative democracy was not the most appropriate system to combat communism. I had become aware of the high degree of dishonesty, cynicism, and perversity of the capitalist system. In early 1963 I decided to become a follower and spokesman of nationalist ideas. Nevertheless, a short time later I also came to understand that this new political position--which was a rejection to my previous political attitude--was in reality a contradiction, a falsehood, because it was evident that maintaining a nationalist counterrevolutionary position necessarily led to fascism, and there are many examples to prove this in the counterrevolution. That is, to avoid what has happened to other counterrevolutionaries who have advanced from the position of simple nationalist counterrevolution to fascism, I decided to maintain myself in the position of real nationalism. That is, a kind of nationalism which in many aspects coincided with the positions which today are being adopted by a group of Latin American nations which promote rapprochement and a policy of respect toward the Cuban revolutionary process. That is, in assuming this attitude I understood that in reality I had two choices: advance toward fascism or maintain myself in an anti-fascist nationalism. I also understood that the difference between the anti-imperialist nationalism, the real nationalism--let us say the Martí form of nationalism--that he described the United States policy with its true name: imperialism--and the position of the true revolutionary was almost unnoticeable, that there was a minimal distance between them.

[Castellano] Rivero, in your previous answer you talked about the so-called nationalist counterrevolutionaries who have adopted the fascist policy, to quote you. It is understood that these fascist groups are responsible for the terrorist attacks against some Cuban diplomatic offices abroad. Is this true?

[Rivero] This is completely true. The fascist counterrevolutionaries are the authors and the organizers of the terrorist campaign which began 10 years ago with the so-called "war through the roads of the world" and which is continuing today with the actions reported by the press during these last few weeks. We can say that the leaders of these terrorist cells are 98, 99 percent fascists. That is, they are public and open admirers of Mussolini, Hitler, Primo de Rivera, and at the present time of the complete fascist Chilean tyrant Augusto Pinochet.

All of the terrorist bands which operate in U.S. territory and in other countries such as Mexico, Venezuela and Spain, are definitely fascist and they have adopted this terrorist strategy because they are aware of that what they call the anticommunist cause--the counterrevolutionary struggle--has failed and they think that terrorism is the only road open to them. We can say that terrorism is the direct result of the failure of the counterrevolution as a political cause. I would say that terrorism is the typical expression of defeat.

[Prado] According to your statements, you appear to know certain secret things about these fascist groups. Do you?

[Rivero] Yes. During the development of my revolutionary work in U.S. territory I had to keep in close contact with most of these fascist groups, founders of terrorist bands which have been operating since (1962).

[Prado] You say that the fascists direct these dynamite attacks. Can you expand on this?

[Rivero] As I explained, the beginning of the terrorist campaign in 1964 was the creation of the Cuban nationalist movement--I reiterate, a movement of broad Nazi affiliation, which is well known in counterrevolutionary circles. The terrorist campaign was born with the terrorist attack against the UN building. Fascist elements hurled a bazooka projectile at the UN building in New York. Fortunately, it did not hit the building and instead fell in the East River. This was the beginning of "the war through the roads of the world" which moved--independent from these criminal actions--from a moderate position to 1967 and 1968--when as a result of this terrorist wave new groups were created, such as Cuban Power, the Secret Anti-Communist Army and other similar groups which carried out this campaign.

United, these terrorist groups unleashed a terror campaign in 1968. In less than a year, more than 70 bombs were placed in U.S. territory. Seventy terrorist attempts took place. These attacks were primarily directed against--as many people, especially those abroad, will recall--the diplomatic offices of the nations which maintained relations with Cuba. That is to say, those European countries and Mexico which had refused to go along with the criminal policy of the Cuban blockade which was decreed by U.S. imperialism. This terrorist campaign in 1968 was also directed at attacking counterrevolutionary elements who were doing their work from a capitalist viewpoint, that is, they had businesses and so on; a campaign was unleashed against the counterrevolutionary capitalists who refused to contribute economically to these terrorist groups because it is obvious that this campaign ran counter to their own interests. Nevertheless, around October 1968, and we all know that in U.S. political life the months before the election are crucial, about 4 weeks before the '68 elections, the U.S. repressive bodies, mainly the FBI, decided to eliminate these groups basically because U.S. public opinion, the U.S. press, were exerting strong pressures, especially on the FBI, so that the general elections might be held in a peaceful atmosphere. Because of this, these groups--Cuban Power, the Nationalist Movement, and other minor groups--were neutralized just 3 or 4 weeks before the 1968 elections.

[Martí] We understand that these terrorist actions continued. Is that right?

[Rivero] Yes, the terrorist actions continued because the neutralization was not effective and moreover it was only temporary. That is, I understand that the neutralization was basically carried out so that the elections could be held in a peaceful atmosphere.

However, an analysis of the events of the counterrevolution during the past 10 years shows us that more than 3 years later, this terrorist campaign which the FBI thought it had neutralized, reemerged with a criminal action. It was the action which took place in Montreal. You will recall that the Cuban trade offices in Montreal were attacked early in 1972 and destroyed and a Cuban revolutionary was assassinated. This attack was carried out by a terrorist group called Young Cuba and was coordinated with other fascist elements who resided--and I understand they still do--in Montreal and other Canadian cities and who had been cooperating with the campaign of the Cuban Nationalist Movement since 1964. And we must not forget that in 1966-1967 our embassy in Ottawa was attacked twice. That is, this action was carried out by the youth band. The band was formed by a group of young fascists who had belonged, some of them, to former [Cuban] President Carlos Eric Secarras' group and others to the group led by Ramiro de la Fe, a Playa Mirón invader, a counterrevolutionary who served a sentence of 2 and 1/2 years in the United States for illegal activities. As I understand it, this operation was financed with a $2,500 contribution from former President Carlos Eric Secarras. The counterrevolutionaries Eduardo Iru and Rafael Perez (Portel) directly participated in the attack against the Cuban trade office in Montreal. They had the cooperation of an individual with the last name of Soto, a resident in Montreal.

These youths, who had been part of the Young Cuba band, in a short time created another fascist band also dedicated to terrorism. It was named the Cuban Neorevolutionary Action. During mid-1973, they plotted a personal attack against Cuban ambassador to Mexico [name indistinct]. After the bloody coup d'etat in Chile on 11 September 1973, these elements reintegrated themselves with Ramiro de la Fe's group.

At the end of 1973, the individual who we could say coordinated the work of the Chilean counterrevolutionaries was a newsman, a resident in Miami named Pedro Ernesto Diaz. He is closely linked to the Chilean criminal band, fatherland and freedom and to the coupist military group. He established close contacts and strong ties with this terrorist band which had acted in Montreal, Canada, and which was led by Ramiro de la Fe. In this way, these Chilean and Cuban counterrevolutionaries created a so-called pro-Chile committee, essentially aimed at creating favorable propaganda for the fascist military junta because, as is known, the junta's international [word indistinct] from the moment when they committed the crime of assassinating President Salvador Allende and violated the Chilean people's rights incurred a large scale, worldwide repudiation. The junta believed that it needed the help of specific elements inside the United States.

Besides this, a few days after the heroic death of President Allende, a close friend of Chilean tyrant Augusto Pinochet, Col Eduardo Sepulveda, visited Miami and personally met with Ramiro de la Fe and with this group of young terrorists. As I understand it, a kind of bargain was struck between the Chilean fascist colonel and a group of Cuban counterrevolutionaries led by Ramiro de la Fe. The pact specifically provided that if the counterrevolutionary elements in Miami and the northern zone carried out a pro-junta publicity campaign, and if this campaign was successful, Colonel Eduardo Sepulveda would request from the Chilean tyrant that the Chilean military junta supply the Cuban counterrevolutionaries with arms, equipment and money. This help from the Chilean military junta has two objectives: first, to promote the campaigns of the pro-Chile committee which is simply a propagandistic publicity committee, and second, to directly aid the terrorist actions these elements have been carrying out in U.S. territory and in various Latin American and European countries.

[Prado] Does this mean that, according to you, it is fully confirmed that these counterrevolutionary actions are financed by the Chilean fascist junta?

[Rivero] I would not say that the entire terrorist campaign--which is already 10 years old--has been financed by the Chilean junta, nor would I say that the whole terrorist campaign which is taking place at this moment and has been carried out since 11 September 1973 has been financed by the Chilean junta. However, I do assure you that the terrorist campaigns being carried out by the group of Cuban counterrevolutionaries led by Ramiro de la Fe and made up of Playa Giron invaders and of members of the secret anti-communist army, which we named before and which operated in 1968 and was temporarily neutralized, and by the group of young fascists who perpetrated the Montreal crime, I do assure you that the campaigns of these elements are directly financed with money from the Chilean fascist military junta.

I would like to comment on an incident that--even if it is not widely known by the public is perfectly well known by counterrevolutionary elements with fascist leanings operating in U.S. territory. It is as follows: When Cuban Prime Minister Dr Fidel Castro visited Chile in October 1971, a group of counterrevolutionary fascists, sponsored by the CIA, engineered a plot to assassinate both the Cuban revolutionary leader and President Allende. The name of the person who directed this operation, this terrorist attack, is Jesus Dominguez Benitez, known as "the islander." He had been closely linked to Cuban Power, a terrorist organization which, as we have said, operated in 1968. He also participated in the infiltration attempt by a group of counterrevolutionaries in the early part of January 1970 led by Vicente Mendez. This individual, Jesus Dominguez Benitez, had been arrested twice by the FBI and tried on two occasions by two different courts for illegal activities. Nevertheless, this individual was released within a few days, and enjoyed such complete freedom of movement that he was able to gather arms and organize a personal attack against two Latin American heads of state.

The work of this cell, directed by Jesus Dominguez Benitez, had the cooperation of several Cuban counterrevolutionaries residing in Caracas, Venezuela. These false documents acquired for Benitez accredited him as a Venezuelan citizen and newsman. With these documents Benitez traveled to Santiago, Chile to cover the visit of the Cuban prime minister to the southern sister nation. Later it was learned that Dominguez Benitez also had the cooperation of a group of Chilean military elements who had been plotting against President Salvador Allende from the very day the Popular Unity government came to power in September 1970. This individual later returned to Venezuela and eventually to the United States.

Regarding all this, I am prompted to ask why the U.S. authorities cannot control an individual who has been convicted on two occasions by judicial courts in the city of Miami and if perhaps the U.S. authorities do not know how to, cannot or have no intention of protecting their borders against these criminal plans.

[Castellano] Rivero Collado, could you tell us anything about the current plans of these terrorist elements that operate in several countries?

[Rivero Collado] I can assure you that the terrorist campaign which these elements have waged in the last 10 years against the diplomatic missions of several countries from now on is going to be an open war by the most aggressive factions of the counterrevolution against--allow me to repeat--the American nations which favor the lifting of the blockade against Cuba at the next, 14th meeting of American foreign ministers, to be held this Friday in Quito.

This will mean mainly terrorist attacks against the embassies of the nations that vote in favor of the lifting of the blockade--in the United States and in several countries where these fascist bands operate--as we said before, in Mexico, Spain, Venezuela and other countries. And above all, there is a plan on the part of the fascist terrorist groups of the counterrevolution to assassinate the diplomats, foreign ministers and ambassadors of these nations accredited in this country.

[Martí] Rivero, are you saying that they are planning to kill Latin American diplomats?

[Rivero] That is correct. This strategy was outlined in mid-73, when the aggressive elements of the counterrevolution started to get a glimpse of the positive change of attitude on the part of the Latin American nations toward the Cuban Revolution. It might also be added that the plan of these elements is aimed at two specific individuals: first U.S. Secretary of State Henry Kissinger and second Costa Rican Foreign Minister Gonzalo Pardo, who, as we all know, has been the proponent of this Friday meeting in Quito.

Recently we read a report in a U.S. newspaper which, we could say, broadens and corroborates what we had known from a private source since 1972--basically, that this plan to try to kill the U.S. secretary of state began to take shape in mid--or better said, toward the end of--1973. This plan has been updated in the past few weeks. For example, this fact--which, I repeat, we learned from a private source--has been corroborated by a U.S. newsmagazine, who I understand is the one most widely read by the U.S. public--Jack Anderson.

[Prado] Besides the terrorist groups you have referred to several times in your replies, we understand that other similar groups or gangs have emerged recently. What can you tell us in this regard?

[Rivero] I would say first of all--I believe I have a series of notes here on these groups to which we will refer--that the terrorist cells of the Cuban Nationalist Movement, of the so-called Cuban Nationalist Movement, continue operating just as they did prior to 1968. These elements have--that is, had--their major effectiveness in what they call the north zone, which comprises the metropolitan area of New York City as well as certain areas of the state of New Jersey. These elements have been the creators, the founders of so-called Group Zero, the so-called terrorist group which publicly claimed responsibility for the assassination of Jose Y Diaz de la Torriente, a 70-year-old senior citizen whom the fascist counterrevolutionaries accused of stealing the funds of the so-called Torriente plan, which were to be used to combat the revolution.

A few weeks after Torriente was killed, shot, attacked from behind, another 60-year-old man, Ernesto Rodriguez, president of the Christian Democratic Movement in exile, as they call it, that is, of the counterrevolutionary Christian Democrats, was also fatally shot in Miami. Four days after Torrientes' murder, the Cuban Jover 1968 leader and head of the terrorist gangs, Arturo Rodriguez Vives, was found murdered in New York. And at the end of August this year the leader of the Cuban Nationalist Movement, invader of Playa Girón and leader of a cell of the Zero Group, Hector Diaz Limon, was found strangled to death in Union City, New Jersey. This, of course, is but a small, intimate part of what has become to be known as the internal war within the counter-revolution, which, as we have seen, has already claimed the lives of several persons.

Second, we have the so-called Secret Cuban Government, which was founded in 1972 and carried out several spectacular terrorist attacks until 1974 when it joined the so-called Cuban Liberation National Front, FNLC, which today is the most active terrorist group. The Secret Cuban Government is a terrorist gang made up of former members of Cuban Power 1968, a group named Aramir--Aramir Alliance--and the Marti Guerrilla Movement [Movimiento Insurreccional Martiano] which has been the front for this terrorist group. We could say that the headquarters of this Secret Cuban Government was also based in the northern area, that is to say, in what the American people call the industrialized northeast.

In 1973, in November 1973, the so-called Secret Cuban Government was hatching a plan to assassinate the Cuban ambassador to the United Nations, Ricardo Alarcon Quesada. To accomplish this objective the so-called Secret Cuban Government had an apartment in New York City, in what they call uptown or uptown Manhattan, that is the northern part of New York City, where they stored plastic material, explosive plastic material known as G-3, G-4 and DA-9. There they also kept two M-3 machineguns, hand grenades, and several automatic pistols and parts for them. It is worthwhile noting that the plastic material that was being kept in the apartment I referred to is exactly the same as that which the following month, or 2 months later, in January 1974, was found in the children's playground on the premises of our embassy in Mexico. However, this action in Mexico was carried out by the third terrorist gang we are going to analyze. That has taken the name of Cuban Action.

Cuban Action is a terrorist gang made up of members of the Guerrilla Movement for Revolutionary Recovery [Movimiento Insurreccional de Recuperacion Revolucionaria--MIRR], which is not to be confused with the patriotic MIR--in other words, this is the anti-patriotic MIRR, its opposite--and by activists of the so-called Revolutionary Directorate [Directorio Revolucionario]. We can say that in 1973 a young man 26 or 27 years old went to Paris with the intention of blowing up the Cuban Embassy there on behalf of this group. However, the very powerful bomb he was carrying exploded in his hands, killing him instantly and destroying his body, which was never found--in other words, the bomb tore him apart and destroyed an entire floor of the hotel in a town near Paris named (Abrairieville). This individual, [words indistinct] La Cruz, in reality was a victim of the ringleaders of these groups which sent him to Paris--independent of the fact that he was a terrorist. Basically he was a victim of these other elements that take no risks even though they are ringleaders and directors.

Beside the Cuban Action [Accion Cubana] gang, we have the National Front for Cuban Liberation, known as the FNLC, which we could say is a mixture of terrorist cells that have belonged to other earlier terrorist groups. It also comprises mercenaries of the Yankee army trained in Fort Jackson, Fort Benning and Fort Knox, and now also has a number of veterans. The FNLC is also formed by followers of Ramon Crozco Crespo and the of pirates who have carried out several nautical attacks on our fishermen over the past few years, as well as a team of parachutists known as the Golden Hawks and a dissident group of the so-called Authentic Party of the Miami area and other elements.

I would like to add that there is complete coordination among the Secret Cuban Government Cuban Action and the FNLC. In reality, I would say that it is the same group--as we claimed earlier--which branches out to give an impression of being more numerous and to deceive the public. This front, the FNLC, is responsible for sending explosive packages through the mail from Mexico to several Cuban embassies abroad. Of these, one that arrived at the embassy in Lima seriously injured a Cuban woman employee in one arm. And one that arrived at a Madrid post office injured two Spanish postal employees.

[Castellano] Rivero Collado, could you name the counterrevolutionaries that direct these terrorist groups?

[Rivero] There are coordinators, cell leaders, and cell members in these terrorist groups. The coordinators or main leaders of the terrorist gangs are the following: Felipe Rivero Diaz and Guillermo (Novo Sampol) for the so-called Cuban Nationalist Movement and for the Group Zero. Felipe Rivero coordinates operations in Florida and Guillermo Novo Sampol in New York. In the North, Hector A. Fabian, Francisco Hernandez and Guillermo Miguel, of the so-called Secret Cuban Government; Orlando Bosch Avila and Antonio (Calatayud) for Cuban Action; Ramon Orozco Crespo, Angel J. Ferrer, Frank Castro, Humberto Lopez and Alfredo (Sayuz) for the FNLG. A counterrevolutionary named Gustavo Marin Duarte also joined the FNLG recently.

As cell bosses of the aforementioned terrorist gangs we have Orlando (Aquinza) Perez, Ignacio Novo Sampol, and Felipe Martinez Blanco for the so-called Nationalist Movement or Group Zero, which is one and the same; Oscar Luis Acevedo and Edwin Gonzalez, Playa Giron invaders and former members of the Secret Anticommunist Army, for the so-called Secret Cuban Government; also Guido (Sanz) y Perez (Hevilla), Playa Giron invader and former secretary general of the (MIR) which was led by Orlando Bosch Avila, who is the coordinator of the terrorist gang Cuban Action in the city of San Juan, Puerto Rico. We also have Gerardo Rodriguez Sanchez, Humberto Lopez Junior, Luis Crespo and Juan Jose (Peruero) for the FNLG.

Lopez and Crespo were seriously wounded in March when a medium-size bomb exploded in their hands while they were trying to set it in a box to be mailed to one of our embassies abroad. This explosion occurred in the home of counterrevolutionary Alfredo Sayuz, who has been serving as coordinator--the man who has been coordinating the work of these three groups. There are other elements who, beside taking an active part in the terrorist campaigns also have tasks we could call "unspecified." Their names are Horacio (Minguillon) and Rolando (Minguillon), Arturo Munoz, Antonio Mendez, Jose Perez Linares Pedro Hernandez, Francisco Molina, Rafael Gonzalez (Labrado), Gabriel (Abay) and Jose Aguila (Caliman). These elements operate in New York City, although Mr Aguila Caliman also resides in the Dominican Republic. Also, Luis (Corno), director of a counterrevolutionary newspaper, Jurto (Halcon), Jose (Llevero), Eduardo Paz and Jesus Lazo. These elements carry out and coordinate terrorist attacks in Miami. We also have Aldo (Rosau), Silvia (Ware) and Peire (Hornap), who operate in the terrorist cells in Los Angeles, California.

[Martí] Rivero, you spoke earlier of a plan [words indistinct] to assassinate Latin American diplomats. I think this subject is very interesting and very important, so I would like an answer: Could you tell us which of these groups is preparing this plan to murder Latin American diplomats?

[Rivero] The plan has been ordered by the following counterrevolutionary elements: Orlando Bosch Avila, Antonio Calatayud, Hector A. Fabian, Ramon Orozco Crespo, Felipe Rivero Diaz, Juan Jose Peruero, Angel J. Ferrer and Gustavo Marin Duarte.

It is known that they have had meetings on this subject over the past few months. It is necessary to recall something we have not mentioned here tonight, and that is the well known fact that on 19 September, as you will recall, Costa Rican Foreign Minister Gonzalo Fazio received a death threat in Washington. This threat was publicly confirmed by the Costa Rican ambassador in Washington, Rodolfo Silva. As you will also recall, the U.S. Secret Service assigned five of its agents to protect the Costa Rican foreign minister wherever he went in Washington.

It is also known that a terrorist cell traveled to Washington around 18 September. This meeting, which agreed to hold this Friday's meeting in suite, a meeting of the Permanent Council of the OAS consultative body, was held in Washington at the Pan American Union building on 20 September.

We should also recall that, as we were saying before, this campaign is directed against the U.S. secretary of state. This is what has been said during the meetings of the aggressive counterrevolutionary circles, and which columnist Anderson now not only confirms but tells us something we did not know about--the fact that these terrorist gangs were planning to kill members of the U.S. Congress who proposed a revision of U.S. policy toward the Cuban Revolution.

[Prado] But you have mentioned, Rivero Collado, that the elements who on various occasions attacked our fishermen were linked with these terrorist acts. Could you explain this more clearly?

[Rivero] Counterrevolutionaries Juan Jose (Peruvero), Antonio Iglesias and Ramon Orozco Crespo come from these pirate groups. (Peruvero) and Iglesias were the two counterrevolutionaries who led the attack on the town of [words indistinct] where two Cuban revolutionaries were cowardly assassinated and several of the local inhabitants were wounded. I understand that among those wounded was a 13-year-old girl whose right leg had to be amputated the next day. After this attack, these counterrevolutionaries together with Ramon Orozco Crespo became involved in the FMLC terrorist plans. Prior to becoming a terrorist, Orozco Crespo carried out a series of attacks on our fishing boats between the years 1972 and 1973--including the one carried out on 3 October 1973 in which they went so far as to kill a humble fisherman and kidnap his body. We must add that this same Ramon Orozco Crespo served for many years as bodyguard--years ago they were all called bodyguards--of Florida multimillionaire (Maurice Ferre). Since we are talking about those who were involved in these activities, I would like to add that these men walk freely down the streets of Miami and New York and publicly boast of such activities as having attacked a fishermen's village causing a 13-year-old girl to lose her leg. They publicly boast about these things and consider them acts of heroism. And some of the members of these aggressive groups truly accept them as heroes. These groups have publicly announced that despite the already obvious international atmosphere of detente, they will continue fighting--and I quote--"even if they have to fight the U.S. authorities themselves."

We must add that these attacks on Cuba have been carried out by boats anchored in the Miami River which goes right through the city. Nevertheless, these boats that have attacked Cuba are still there, apparently (untouched). These men continue to walk freely down the streets of Miami, they still have the weapons, the equipment and the ships they used in [words indistinct] and other such activities. They continue plotting and planning despite the existence of a piracy treaty signed by Cuba and the United States on 15 February 1970.

[Castellano] Rivero Collado, changing the subject a little bit, do you believe the total extent of the Cuban counterrevolutionaries' participation in the Watergate affair has come to light?

[Rivero] I do not think that everything has fully been revealed. Not all of the names have been revealed. I can personally say that the group of five counterrevolutionaries--including James McCord, who is North American but who thinks like a Cuban counter-revolutionary--which broke into the Watergate building was originally a group of six.

At the last minute it was decided that the sixth member was not to participate that night in Watergate. This sixth individual is Angel J. Ferrer, and I think that we have broadly discussed him in our previous statements.

Something else which has not been revealed is the name and direct participation in the Watergate conspiracy of Manolo (Arttime West), civilian chief of the Playa Giron invasion and a CIA agent for many years who, you will recall, approximately 2 years ago was plotting to assassinate the Panamanian chief of government, Gen Omar Torrijos. Arttime has had a long-standing and direct participation in everything dealing with Watergate; nevertheless, his name has not really been publicized.

Another Watergate conspirator--and this is known in counterrevolutionary circles, I am not making this up, this is simply commented upon by other groups--is Mike Suarez Fernandez. Also taking part in Watergate was Humberto Lopez who is linked with the Cuban National Liberation Front [Frente Nacional de Liberacion Cubana], a terrorist group. Mike Suarez Fernandez and Humberto Lopez are activists of the so-called Authentic Party of the Miami area. I understand that according to comments that were made in Miami and New York, counterrevolutionaries of Cuba extraction Eebe Rebozo and (Edgar Marti) are not completely dissociated--they are not even halfway dissociated--from the Watergate conspiracy.

[Marti] You mentioned before that the terrorist campaign is a result of the failure of the counterrevolution. What are, in your opinion, the factors that caused such a failure?

[Rivero] The total failure of the counterrevolution is caused by the demonstrated truth that the Cuban revolution is a historical and irreversible fact. Moreover, I would say that the most recent [factor is] the terrorist campaign that puts the counterrevolutionaries outside the law. This criminal terrorist campaign has given rise to an extensive worldwide rejection, as well as rejection on the part of U.S. public opinion and even more, I would add that terrorism is the swan song of the counterrevolution.

[Prado] You have been in Cuba for some time. How do you feel and what are your impressions?

[Rivero] Well, friend Prado, I feel highly honored and pleased to have returned to my country after so many years absence. In the short time I have been here I have toured the country from one end to the other, and I have honestly been able to realize the extraordinary social transformations that have been achieved by the Cuban revolution. This puts our country in the forefront among nations.

[Marti] One last question. What are your plans?

[Rivero] Right now I am concluding a book about the history of the counterrevolution. It is, one might say, a story that goes from the foundation of the White Rose in January 1959 to the Watergate events which only 3 months ago caused the downfall of the President of the United States. I believe the book will be published shortly.

[unidentified speaker] We wish to thank Carlos Rivero Collado for his participation in this program.

We have presented an interview with Carlos Rivero Collado, former counterrevolutionary leader who, when he ceased being one, carried out revolutionary activities abroad for several years. Thank you very much.

All of the above enclosed memoranda to the Bureau were received on 11/7/74 from JAMES F. NEAL, Associate Special Prosecutor, handling the Watergate special prosecution trial of KENNETH WELLS PARKINSON in Washington, D.C.

Additionally, on 11/7/74 Assistant Watergate Special Prosecutor JILL WINE VOLNER turned over a xerox copy of a memorandum prepared by her dated 1/25/74 under subject "The Evidence of Conspiracy And Obstruction of Justice by KENNETH WELLS PARKINSON." This memorandum is being incorporated into Philadelphia file. The memorandum sets forth circumstantial and evidentiary information against PARKINSON gathered by the Watergate Special Prosecution Office and was used for review and preparation for the polygraph examination of PARKINSON on 11/8/74. It is pointed out to the Bureau that referenced Washington Field airtel of 11/8/74 enclosing letterhead memorandum reporting results of polygraph examination of PARKINSON shows that PARKINSON was practicing deception when he denied seeing or being advised about the enclosures, all of which apparently were prepared by or for defendant HUNT.

The original of memorandum dated 11/7/74 was retained by Associate Special Prosecutor JAMES F. NEAL and was signed by PARKINSON and his attorney.

REL IDW AND STATEMENT OF PROBLEM

The seven Watergate defendants, and others not yet indicted, bugged DNC offices initially against their better judgment, knowing that Larry O'Brien was seldom there, and that many items of interest were being moved to Florida. Furthermore the defendants pressed an alternate plan to bug O'Brien's Pontainebleau convention suite, before occupancy, a low-risk, high-gain operation which was rejected.

The seven defendants again protested further bugging of DNC Headquarters on June 16th-17th, the intercepted conversations by then having shown clearly that O'Brien was not using his office. Again, objections were over-ridden and the attempt was loyally made even though money for outside guards was struck from the operational budget by Jeb Magruder. In fact the entire history of GEMSTONE was characterized by diminishing funding coupled with increasing demands by those who conceived and sponsored the activity.

If initial orders to bug DNC Headquarters were ill-advised, the defendants' sponsors compounded the fiasco by the following acts:

1. Indecisiveness at the moment of crisis.
2. Failure to quash the investigation while that option was still open.
3. Allowing Hunt's safe to be opened and selected contents handed to the FBI.
4. Permitting an FBI investigation whose unprecedented scope and vigor caused humiliation to families, friends and the defendants themselves.
5. Granting immunity to Baldwin.
6. Permitting defendants to fall into the hands of a paranoid judge and three self-admitted liberal Democrat prosecutors.
7. Failure to provide promised support funds on a timely and adequate basis; continued postponements and consequent avoidance of commitments.
8. An apparent wash-hands attitude now that the Election has been won, heightening the sense of unease among all defendants who have grown increasingly to feel that they are being off up as scapegoats ultimately to be abandoned.

Items for consideration:

1. Once the criminal trial ends, the DNC civil suit resumes. In his deposition John Mitchell may well have perjured himself.
2. Pending are three investigations by Congressional committee. The Democratic Congress is not going to simply let the Watergate affair die away.
3. The media are offering huge sums for defendants' stories. For example, an offer to one defendant for his "autobiography" now stands at $745,000.
4. The Watergate bugging is only one of a number of highly illegal conspiracies engaged in by one or more of the defendants at the behest of senior White House officials. These as yet undisclosed crimes can be proved.
5. Immunity from prosecution and/or judicial clemency for cooperating defendants is a standing offer.
6. Congressional elections will take place in less than two years.

Defendants' Position

The defendants have followed all instructions meticulously, keeping their part of the bargain by maintaining silence. They have not, until now, attempted to contact persons still in positions of responsibility in an effort to obtain relief and reassurance, believing pre-Election security to be a primary consideration.

The Administration, however, remains deficient in living up to its commitments. These commitments were and are

1. Financial support
2. Legal defense fees
3. Pardons
4. Rehabilitation

Having recovered from post-Election euphoria, the Administration should now attach high priority to keeping its commitments and taking affirmative action in behalf of the defendants.

To end further misunderstandings the seven defendant have set November 27th at 5:00 p.m. as the date by which all past and current financial requirements are to be paid, and credible assurances given of continued resolve to honor all commitments. Half-measures will be unacceptable.

Accordingly, the defendants are meeting on November 25th to determine our joint and automatic response to evidence of continued indifference on the part of those in whose behalf we suffered the loss of our employment, our futures and our reputations as honorable men.

The foregoing should not be misinterpreted as a threat. It is among other things a reminder that loyalty has always been a two-way street.

MEMORANDUM TO: Mr. William O. Bittman

FROM: Dorothy Hunt

RE: Contact made on above date and distribution on same date

I received a call from Mr. Rivers at noon on the above date and arranged to pick up what he "was able to scrape up on such short notice". I asked the amount and was told $53,500. I then asked what distribution was to be made and was told that it was up to me, but that I would be accountable at our next conversation. I informed Mr. Rivers that Mr. Liddy had telephoned me the previous night and informed me that since he would be in court on the 19th, he would appreciate it if I could handle any contact for him.

Mr. Rivers said he had not arranged anything about Mr. Liddy (a fact I am not going to pass on to Mr. Liddy as I feel it will anger him), and asked me to spread the $53,500 out to include Mr. Liddy and his attorney as well as Mr. McCord. He concluded that he would be in touch with me again when he could and repeated that this amount was all he was able to scrape up on such short notice. I thanked him.

Distribution as follows:

$13,000 to Mr. Barker for Mr. Rothblatt
$13,000 to Mr. McCord for Mr. Bailey
$13,000 to Mr. Liddy for Mr. Marlius
$ 5,000 to Mr. Barker for 2 Assts. to Mr. Rothblatt
$ 5,000 to Mr. Liddy for compensation of 2 months salary
$ 1,000 to Mr. Liddy for Bail
$ 1,000 to Mr. Hunt for Bail
$ 1,000 to Mr. Barker for travel for 4 persons from Miami
$ 1,500 to Mr. Barker for Mr. de Felipe for attorney and expenses
